Don't Neglect Your Liver.

Liver troubles quickly result in serious complications, and the man who neglects his liver has little reason for health. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken now and then will keep the liver in perfect order. If the disease has developed, Brown's Iron Bitters will cure it permanently. Strength and vitality will always follow the use of Brown's Iron Bitters. It is sold by all dealers.

Taxable Property and Polls Returned in Lumpkin.

The digest completed by Tax

Born Without a Head.

A very curious child was born in Hall county near Candler yesterday. The infant came into the world with only a portion of a head. From the lower part of the nose up, the head was missing, but it lived and breathed for three hours. The hands and feet of the child were like those of a 'possum, and it is said to be a most peculiar creature by those who saw it. A coffin was sent from the undertaking office of Mr. Dorsey, and it was buried today. If the infant had been embalmed, many curious people would have been interested in seeing such a peculiar freak of nature.—News.

Pimples, blotches, yellow skin, scaly and ugly spots, foul breath, dark rings about the eyes, owe their existence to a diseased liver and bad digestion. To remove these disfiguring evidences of internal disorder the liver should receive immediate attention. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidneys Balm is a reliable remedy for liver troubles and derangements in the kidneys. Its use will restore those organs to the healthy, active and regular performance of their functions. When this is accomplished the eye will become bright and sparkling, the skin fair and smooth, and the complexion clear. Price $1.00 a bottle, At

The ruins of old friendship are a more melancholy spectacle than those of desolated palaces. They exhibit the heart that was once lighted up with joy all damp and deserted, and haunted by those birds of ill-omen that only nestle in ruin.

Weakness manifests itself in the loss of vitality; the tissues are wasting; the blood is being opened for decay. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken in time will restore your strength, soothe your nerves, make your blood rich and red. Do you more, good than any other special course of medicine.
Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

W. H. Courtney Nominated
For the Senate.

The populists of White county met on the 27th ult and nominated the following ticket:
For Senator for the 32nd Senatorial district, W. H. Courtney.
Representative, J. C. Bell.
Clerk Superior Court, B. W.
Cox.
Sheriff, W. A. Jackson.
Tax Receiver, — Johnson.
Tax Collector, J. W. Blackwell.
Treasurer, Daniel Brownlow.
Surveyor, — Westmoreland.
Many failed to receive nominations who were as competent perhaps as those who were nominated, but none of them seemed to be out of joint about it and all passed off quietly.

Shifting the Taxes.

There is no doubt as to the influence of congress in putting a small stamp tax on telegraph and telephone messages, sleeping car and steamship tickets, and various other or instruments and articles issued or used by corporations. Its object was to collect a portion of the war taxes from the great corporations that pay enormous profits and yet contribute nothing to the support of the Government which issues and protects their patents, guards their property, and in many cases pays them large sums of money for service.

Yet nearly all these corporations are making their customers pay for the stamps, thus giving a new proof of the saying that the "customer pays for all."

Eighty per cent or more of the tariff taxes is collected from articles of universal use and necessity. Sixty per cent of the new internal war taxes, it has been estimated, falls upon the poor, thirty per cent upon the middle classes, leaving only ten per cent to be paid by the rich.

It is really impossible for our congress to levy taxes so that they shall be collected with some reference to (1) ability to pay and (2) benefits received.—N. Y. World.

A shortage of farm labor in the west is reported from Omaha. Nebraska and South Dakota farmers are said to be crying for help to gather their crops. The two states have sent about 5,000 volunteers to the army, and a considerable percentage of the men have come from the farming sections, and the drain has interfered seriously with the harvest operations. Farmers are now offering laborers $2 a day to work, but the number to be had at that price is far short of the demands.

The Rev. W. R. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once."

ed to relieve me, I was advised to the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale

CERVERA'S FLEET.

Some Strange Things That Took Place on and Near Them.

Strange things took place on and near the wrecked Spanish ships.
On the Vizcaya men prepared to meet death as naked as they were born, shrieking in drunken frenzy.
On the Oquendo and the Colon officers and men prepared for death as for a wedding, putting on their finest clothing. The Oquendo's captain ordered all the oil that could be obtained to be brought on deck. He flooded his cabin with it.
He had it poured over the decks, which were running with blood.
The slaughter on that ship had been frightful. Then it is said he shot himself rather than to be come a prisoner, although this is denied, and one report is that he escaped. Hundreds of sailors, mad with fear, the effect of the brandy and the intense heat, leaped overboard to try and swim ashore and thus escape. There is a strong surf off Santiago. The waves are sometimes ten and fifteen feet high, and a man must be a good swimmer to live in the sea.
The Spanish sailors struggled in it and in many places as they approached the shore they found eager Cuban waiters for them eager to kill them one by one, to pot them as they struggled to dry land. The sea was better than the burning hell on ship.

"In my dreams I had seen the Vizcaya in just such distress and saw her crew as then, and in doing so I disposed them about my little deck precisely as I had done in my dreams." These are the words of the American navy, also they would be hardly worthy of belief. The colon was the only ship that surrendered before she sank, but her officers had made sure that she should go to the bottom by opening all the water plugs and smashing the portholes. Her crew were wildly drunk. The men shouted "Vive los Americanos!"
Some of the sailors were so helpless from liquor that they had to be hoisted on board after the fight in a sling.—New York World.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown,
Gilmer county, W. Va. For sale

An exchange speaks of a man who, is said, always pays for his local paper in advance. As a result he has never been sick a day in his life, never had any corns on his toes, or the toothache, his potatoes never rot, his oats never rust, the weasel never kills his chickens, the frost never kills his beans, his babies never cry at night and his wife never scolds.

A Wonderful Discovery.
The last quarter of a century records many wonderful discoveries in medicine, but none that have accomplished more humanity than that sterling old household remedy, Brown's Iron Bitters. It cures the most serious cases of general health, and neither man, woman or child can take without deriving the greatest benefit.
Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

The Man Below Deck.

Down in the bowels of the ship, down where the engineers and firemen have no weapons; but are busily engaged in studying the steam gauges and feeding the ravenous grates with coal and furnishing the boilers with steam is where the grit is most in demand.
They are cut off from the excitement that stimulates heroic deeds in the man at the guns, and without an avenue of escape, without a chance of safety if the vessel is lost, they must await the outcome of the deadly struggle. Little do they know when a torpedo will run its nose against the vessel's side, tear a great rent in the hull and let in a flood of water that will drown them almost before they can move from their posts.
The duties of the men on deck requires good metal, but the duties of the men in the hold of the battleship requires the most superb heroism and courage.

The terrible ignorance of some of those good old men was pitiful.
Some of them, unable to read or write, much less to understand instructions, actually came to the city without a cent of money in their pockets. Having heard that the veterans' association would feed and lodge and visitors, they did not seem to thank there would be others besides themselves and that they might be slightly crowded in a gang of one hundred thousand people. One veteran with a wife and three children was found on Forsyth street bridge about midnight one night with but 15 cents between the whole family. When asked what he intended to do, the old man said he did not think he would need any money, as he had heard that everything was free.
There were dozens of cases of this character.—Atlanta Constitution.

Overwork, either physical or mental, will produce weakness and loss of energy. Too many business or family cares, overwork in the harvest field, an excess of woman's work and worry, will produce months of misery. To prevent this the exhausted system should be reinforced immediately. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood
Purifier is an appropriate remedy.
Price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire.

An exchange truly says: The religion that makes people pay their debts; the religion that keeps people from speaking ill of their neighbors; the religion that makes no distinction between wealth and poverty; the religion that makes people honest; upright; the religion that makes men manly and women womanly; the religion that is a part of people's every day life, exemplified in kind deeds, loving acts, cheering words, is the religion needed in the world today.
That's why it is so scarce. The thing you need is always the hardest thing to get. The religion that makes a man pray in public, exhort and shout is tenfold more plentiful than the religion that is seen in a man's conduct towards his fellow man on the outside of the church.

The quality of the blood depends upon good or bad digestion and assimilation. To make the blood rich in life and strength giving

Purifier it will nourish the properties of the blood from which the elements of vitality are drawn. Price 50c and Guire.

An Old Idea.

Every day strengthens the belief of eminent physicians that impure blood is the cause of the majority of our diseases.
Twenty-five years ago this theory was used as a basis for the formula of Brown's Iron Bitters. The many remarkable cures effected by this famous old household remedy are sufficient to prove that the theory is correct.
Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 5, 1898.
Entered at the Postoffice, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

Tax returns from '93 counties in Georgia show a decrease of $590,000.

The Supreme Court has decided that the code of Georgia is constitutional.

The question will be, after the war ends, what will be done about the outstanding $900,000,000 Cuban bonds?

The Supreme Court has decided that Blue Ridge is the proper place for the court house and Morgan will soon dwindle away to nothing.

The 10,000 immune volunteers asked for by Uncle Sam to go into the yellow fever stricken districts have been received, many of whom are on their way to Cuba now.

Every man over 18 years of age is liable to military duty without the consent of parents. So says Lieutenant F. L. Palmer, the United States mustering officer at Griffin.

Politics are now beginning to warm up in this county and poor men are being called Mister, while the darkey is always spoken to and made to feel that his company is acceptable when the jug or bottle is passed around.

Hall Superior Court adjourned last week without trying Roark, the murderer of young Findley, but will convene again next Monday. Judge Kinsey is disqualified from presiding as he is a kin to the defendant. So the services of an other judge will have to be procured.

The war department now has a telegraph office on wheels. The wagon has four folding tables, which, when thrown up, form desks upon each is placed a set of telegraph and telephone instruments. It is used on the battlefields to keep army headquarters in communication with heads of divisions, and with the central authorities at Washington.

The full list of the candidates nominated in White county by the populists on the 27th ult., will be found on the first page of today's paper. Besides selecting a full set of county officers they named W. H. Courtney who will make the race for the senate from the 32nd Senatorial District. Mr. Courtney represented us in the senate some years ago. He has many warm personal friends, is a very popular man and will give his opponent, Col. Joe Underwood, a right lively race.

J. R. Priest was found guilty last week in Hall Superior Court for burning Meaders & Quillians mills in that county some months ago and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Tom Chapman was tried on the same charge which resulted in a mistrial. One of the principal witnesses against Tom was carried down to a stable by one of the defendants friends and given a glass of "doctored" wine which caused the witness to go to sleep and dream until night. Judge Kinsey fined the witness $25. He had no money and was placed in jail.

H. H. Bush, who came here some time ago in company with Mr. Maine from London to show the people of this county how to mine on a big scale, soon fell through without accomplishing anything. Mr. Maine went back home after a vessel load of money to buy up everything that looked yellow, while Mr. Bush remained here and induced a Macon gentleman to furnish him money to help carry out his mining schemes, and the result was he was soon afterwards arrested for misappropriation (used to be called stealing) $5,000. He was found guilty last week in Hall Superior Court for misappropriating $2,500, and another similar case is still booked against him. A motion for a new trial will be made.

REVENUE RAID.

What Ben Swain Says About Revenue Officers Conduct in Chastetate District.

Last week we received a letter from U. S. Deputy Marshal Downs stationed at Blairsville, stating that the report made by John Fields concerning the revenue officers conduct while recently in that district, as afterwards published in the NUGGET, was false. The following is what Ben Swain, one of the men arrested at the time, has to say:

WALNUT, GA., July 28, '98. ED. NUGGET:

Will you please print the facts of the abusing of the revenue prisoners on the headwaters of Chastetate river?

Deputy Marshal Downs, H. F. King and Ben Allison visited this section from Blairsville on the 12th. They found in and near an illicit distillery Ben Self, Ransom Porter and myself who they arrested and while the prisoners, Self and Porter, were handcuffed and left in charge of H. F. King, Mr. Downs made him a bed in the north side of the pen, while King made the two boys that were handcuffed a bed on some boards and cloths that were over the singing stand. They were lying on the east side of the pen, while Allison placed himself on the east of whiskey near the boys in front of the fire. King and myself lay on the west side of the pen. After some time had passed everything was quiet. The boys say that they had gone to sleep, Allison picked up a board the end of which was burning and struck the boys, making the fire fly every stroke, which roused them up. Then everything quieted down and the boys say they went to sleep again. Some half an hour after this Allison picked up another board and stepping over where King and I were lying struck me. I arose and told him that he had struck the wrong boy; that I would mix it with him. About that time King arose and stepped in between us and said to me, "Hold on, I will defend you," and said, "Ben Allison, you're acting the d—n fool. Go back, sit down. I'll show you how it is to be striking prisoners with boards," Allison said, "King, you have said something that you will have to take back," King said, "I have said nothing to take back." Allison then drew his pistol and shot at King but he knocked the pistol off and prevented it from taking effect in his breast. By that time we all got in a huddle. King jumped over the pen and as he went Allison fired the second time, which he said filled his face full of smoke, so much so that he could not see for some time. Allison lit out of the pen and got behind some timber and laughed one of those mean laughs of his. Then King and myself left the place and went down to my house and remained until daylight next morning. After eating our breakfast we made our way to Blairsville where we remained seven days before we got any trial. I think that Mr. Allison ought to be remembered at the next term of Court.

H. B. SWAIN.

After receiving a letter from Deputy Marshal John Downs, of Blairsville, last week, demanding that we take back what we published in reference to what John Fields reported about his recent raid in this county, we wrote to the gentleman that we had said nothing to take back, but would publish any statement that he would like to make. He didn't wish to make it through the columns of the Nugget but sent it to the Jasper Republican, where it will meet the eyes of but few people in Lumpkin county. We are determined that the people of this county shall see this document and will publish the article in full next week and prove by his own letter that he has made false statements, which will be clearly seen by every citizen of Lumpkin county.

Alabama went democratic this week by over 50,000 majority.

The Dahlonega District Conference.

The Dahlonega District Conference convened at Cleveland last Wednesday evening, July 27th. Introductory sermon was preached by Rev. W. H. Cooper of Dahlonega charge. Thursday 9 o'clock a. m., the business part of the session of the conference opened with Rev. E. R. Cook, P. E., in the chair. Walter Robinson was elected secretary. The usual committees were appointed and the various interests of the church brought before the body. Mrs. Bass and Miss Mary Singleton gave interesting information on Home and Foreign Missions. Judging from reports from various charges there is an advance on all lines of church work. The Hopewell Academy located in Forsyth county, was tendered in fee simple and accepted by the conference. The Orphans Home was ably represented by Mr. Mays. Resolutions on temperance were offered as usual, after some discussion and trimming were passed. Notwithstanding this was one of the best conferences held in the district. The preaching was good throughout and the spirits presence manifested. Large and attentive congregations at every service. Rev. Mr. Meaders of Memphis conference, preached a most excellent sermon at the Methodist Church at 11 a. m. Mr. Tarpley preached at the Baptist church. Would like to mention others but time and space forbids. Three were licensed to preach and one recommended to the annual conference for admission on trial. Resolutions were read thanking the people of Cleveland for hospitalities. Dahlonega was selected as the next place for holding the conference. Then adjourned.

A. F. NORTON.

A fight is on between the government and the unsuccessful bidders for transporting the Spanish army to Spain. The contract was let to a Spanish line and hence the kick. The government is charged with being in league with the Spanish owners of this line and indirectly the Spanish government as one half of the money would go to the government.

President McKinley will call an extra session of Congress as soon as Spain accepts the terms of peace offered by the United States.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

What does it do? It causes the oil glands in the skin to become more active, making the hair soft and glossy, precisely as nature intended. It cleanses the scalp from dandruff and thus removes one of the great causes of baldness. It makes a better circulation in the scalp and stops the hair from coming out. It Prevents and it Cures Baldness. Ayer's Hair Vigor will surely make hair grow on bald heads, provided only there is any life remaining in the hair bulbs. It restores color to gray or white hair. It does not do this in a moment, as with a hair dye; but in a short time the gray color of age gradually disappears and the darker color of youth takes its place. Would you like a copy of our book on the Hair and Scalp? It is free. Write for it and obtain all the benefits you can get from the use of the Vigor. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

HOW are the children this summer? Are they doing well? Do they get all the benefit they should from their food? Are their cheeks and lips of good color? And are they hearty and robust in every way?

If not, then give them Scott's Emulsion of cod liver oil with hypophosphites.

It never fails to build up delicate boys and girls. It gives them more flesh and better blood.

It is just so with the baby also. A little Scott's Emulsion, three or four times a day, will make the thin baby plump and prosperous. It furnishes the young body with just the material necessary for growing bones and nerves.

War News.

The war news for the past week has not been of as much interest as usual on account of the enemy crying "enough" which is no surprise as it has been expected for some time.

Spain has sued for peace and the United States has submitted the terms upon which she can have it, to-wit, surrender Cuba and Porto Rico and a coaling station and one city in the Philippines and coaling station Labrdone. Gen. Miles has captured Ponce in Porto Rico and is now on the road to San Juan, but volunteers are being taken yet as a large number will be needed for some time to come.

News has reached Washington stating that Spain has accepted the American terms with unimportant reservations, and peace preliminaries will be signed before Saturday.

Col. W. P. Price, one of the members of the board of education of Lumpkin county will address the people at the following places, at the times mentioned. Mothers of children, especially invited. Schools and School Houses will be dismissed. At the same time he will appoint Trustees for each school house; also secure Deeds for School Sites. Teachers at all places mentioned will meet him, first giving notice to all patrons and citizens to attend. Peck's Chapel, Monday, August 8th, 10 o'clock a. m. Mt. Zion, 2 o'clock, p. m. same day. THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 5, 1898.

The Dahlonega camp ground will be a great resort for candidates next week.

Alonzo Benson is now called pa and if the boy grows fast it will soon be as big as his father.

A number of Porter Springs visitors came down last Saturday to view the city and see the mines.

Wm. Price, Jr., has purchased the Robert Howell house which is now occupied by Jim Hughes.

H. E. Galtos, who is mining in White county, was down last Saturday in search of some practical miners.

Archie Anderson has quit singing for the Singer and this sewing machine Co. has no agent in Dahlonega now.

Elisha Postell who was over from Union county the other day, stated that he had killed thirteen rattlesnakes this year.

John Cook didn't go all the way to Cuba. As soon as the recruiting officer found out that he was under age he turned him loose.

W. H. Watkins, of this county, who recently stole two turkeys in Hall county, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or in default go to the chain gang three months.

County School Com. Seabolt thinks of letting the public schools of our town be finished up for the present year under the old system, commencing about the first of September and continuing two months.

Geo. Jenkins, one of the Dahlonega and Gainesville mail contractors had the misfortune to lose one of his horses near Thompson's bridge the other day. The present hot weather is pretty severe on the stage horses.

Our subscribers at Pleasant Retreat, Cleveland and Tennessee say they frequently miss getting their papers until Monday. The post master at Half Way will please change them at his office and not let them go on to Gainesville.

Deputy Collector Boone Crawford visited the western portion of the county last week and the following persons registered to make brandy: T. C. Sain, Dan Corn, Berry Crain, Jack Anderson, all of Lumpkin county, and J. W. Lingerfelt, of Dawson.

Send in your announcement and let the people know who is wanting an office. A man that has not got public spirit enough and is not liberal enough to patronize his county paper with his announcement is too stingy to perform the duties of an office well.

A man, his wife and three children, who said that they were making their way to relatives near Blue Ridge, slept in the school house near the college last Friday night. They had no money and were begging their way. The man was barefooted and all poorly clad.

Young sports who expect to attend the camp meeting next week should leave their pistols and bottles of liquor at home and not come from and go to this place which was intended for divine worship, yelling and shooting like they have been doing for several years.

S. D. Grindle announces his name for sheriff in another column. Davis is well known as being an honest, industrious farmer and fully competent to fill the office and a man that is always sober. He has many friends and will make a good race who, if elected, will discharge his duties.

The law requires the ordinaries of each county to appoint a committee of three from each company of confederate soldiers going from each county so as to get up a complete list of soldiers that went to the war. This committee to be made out by the first day of August. Judge Tate figured around a little but failed to comply with act and our county will be like the crows trail in this matter—behind.

Capt. H. D. Ingersoll went to Washington City last week.

Ben Moore was in Dahlonega a few hours last Sunday from the Big Joe mine.

J. S. Lingerfelt, of Jones' Creek, a son of Mike, was down Wednesday, and said that he was expecting to make the race for sheriff.

Rev. John W. Rider and his wife have gone down to Walker county to see Washington Head, a brother of Mrs. Rider who is expected to die.

Some days ago Wm. Rider, of Hightower district, was thrown from his wagon while the team was running away, which broke one of his arms.

Hightower district has two schools now but it is believed that one of them—Pleasant Hill—will have to suspend on account of not having the number of scholars required by the board of education—fifteen.

Fred Price, of Dahlonega, who was recently appointed Second Lieutenant, received notice by last Friday mail for him to report at once to Fort Thomas, Ky., where he will go into the Sixth Regiment of infantry. Fred has been wrestling with a well developed case of jaundice but left Tuesday night.

W. H. Courtney, the recently nominated candidate for the senate by the populists of White, spent two days in Dahlonega hustling around in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Courtney is no stranger to the people of Dahlonega nor Lumpkin county and will make it quite interesting to his opponent in this part of the district.

A young lady decided last Monday to see if her frequent caller really loved her like he pretended by placing his chair on the porch in the hot sun at 1 o'clock while she occupied one in the shade. He certainly proved to the young lady that he loved her as he sat there for more than an hour with the hot sun beaming on his head and the perspiration streaming from his brow, whispering words of love in her ear.

A vein worth $8 per ton has recently been found in the edge of the yard of the old homestead of W. S. Christy up on Cavender's Creek which is now being worked by his son, Wash Christy. The vein is about twelve inches thick and was struck while they were making potato hills. It is easy to get to and pays the operators well. Three hands take out two tons a day. The vein runs under the well. Old man Christy lived there for about twenty-five years but little did he think that he was drinking off of so much yellow metal.

Mrs. Bryan, a good old lady who lived in Cane Creek district, and the wife of Clark Bryan, one among Lumpkin's best citizens, died at her home last Monday at 3 o'clock p. m., after many months of much suffering. More than a year ago she was stricken with paralysis rendering her unable to walk and was unable to move about the house except when pulled by some one in a chair. Her remains were interred at Cane Creek church burying ground in the presence of a large concourse of people. We deeply sympathize with the husband and other relatives in the removal of this Christian lady from their midst.

The Brown fund placed in the hands of the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College for the benefit of poor boys who want an education is a great blessing to them. A sufficient amount is loaned to those needing and desiring it at only four per cent interest thus enabling them to receive and education and pay it back afterwards. Mr. J. B. Simmons, of Two Run, secured his education in this way. He came down last Monday and paid off his note with interest amounting to $70. He got his education and was able to settle off the note two years before it was due. The young man says that he certainly feels very thankful for the benefits he has received.

Mr. Burt writes us that he is not in the race for the legislature.

Deputy Marshal Grizzle brought in a still from White this week.

Cols. Charters and Lilly are attending Dawson Superior Court. It is whispered that sheriff Brooksher will be a candidate for the legislature.

Prof. G. M. Mitchem, after being in Dahlonega several days, left for his home Wednesday.

Mrs. Sarah C. Cochran, of Gainesville, is in the city and will remain until after campmeeting.

The 5,000 catalogues for the college are now being sent off and distributed throughout the state.

Miss May Cartledge left Wednesday for Atlanta and Marietta to be gone several days visiting relatives.

Miss Mattie Moore and Master Garnet Wheelchel visited relatives at Murrayville last Friday and Saturday.

The council met last Monday night and levied the school bond tax for 1899, being one-tenth of one per cent.

E. D. Wheelchel and wife, of Clarksville, and Mrs. H. R. Blackwell, of Wahoo, visited Mrs. W. S. Huff this week.

Mrs. E. D. Norris and children, of Atlanta, are in the city visiting the parents of Mrs. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Stow.

A post office inspector was here Tuesday and Wednesday inspecting the offices at Dahlonega, Porter Springs and Auraria.

Ladies' Oxford shoes. Price reduced 19 per cent. Only a few pairs left.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

We had a pleasant call last Tuesday from R. T. Erwin, of Young Harris, who spent a short time with his relative here, Mr. G. Hughes.

Mrs. Nancy Free died in Auraria district a few days ago and was buried at Auraria cemetery. She was the wife of Uncle Martin Free who passed away some ten months ago. She was a kind hearted old lady and has gone to rest.

The wife of John Beck, Jr., died last Wednesday morning after a long spell of sickness and much suffering and is no doubt much better off. Her husband was penniless and the ordinary at the request of some Christian hearted ladies had her coffin made at the expense of the county.

Several ministers thought that meeting commenced at the Dahlonega camp ground this week and came in to be on hand but were very much disappointed when they were told that it didn't begin until next Monday. Then the chickens will cease to cackle and shouting will commence.

It becomes our painful duty this week to chronicle the sad and unexpected death of Mrs. Mary Woodward, wife of Mr. W. B. Woodward, junior editor of the Signal, and a daughter of Mr. W. H. Satterfield, which occurred in Dahlonega last Tuesday afternoon at about 2 o'clock, from the effects of yellow jaundice. This is one of the saddest deaths that ever occurred in our town and has caused a gloom of sorrow to spread over the entire community on account of the lady being called away so suddenly, leaving a broken hearted husband alone with five little children to care for, the eldest having been but seven summers. Oh how sad. A short time before she died she hugged and kissed her little child and said, "Mama will never see her babies any more." This is the last words spoken by the dying woman. In a short while her five little ones were left motherless standing around the bedside crying, "mama, mama," which caused every one present to shed tears of sympathy for the distressed. The deceased was a good neighbor, kind wife and Christian lady and her death is deeply regretted by all. Her remains were interred in the Dahlonega cemetery Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Merchant Ben Anderson visited Gainesville this week.

T. C. Hughes, of Blairsville, was in Dahlonega this week.

Prof. Yeates after spending some two weeks in Dahlonega has returned to Atlanta.

Miss Maud McGuire went down to Barrettsville last week to spend a few days with her grand ma.

Whenever your sewing machine, watch, clock, organ, piano, fiddle or bicycle gets out of fix carry or send it to G. H. McGuire, Dahlonega.

John Satterfield and Wm. McGee had a fight last Saturday over in Shoal Creek district. No bones were broken but McGee was bitten several times.

Fred Strickland, of Dawson county, has put up a steam saw mill over in the Merret London settlement. The first bill he will saw is 75,000 feet of different kinds of lumber for Mr. Whorton.

The bids for the Dahlonega school bonds were opened last Saturday by the committee and all four of them were believed to be too low and were rejected. W. H. Patterson, a broker of Atlanta afterwards gave $2,700 for the $2,500 worth of bonds. The last of these bonds are settled twenty-five years from date.

Bob Beck, who enlisted here a few days ago got enough of the war with going farther than Atlanta. When he got down to that city and stood another examination he pretended that he couldn't see well. The enlisting officer that had him examined in Dahlonega was called on who stated to the physicians that no complaint had been made by Bob concerning his eyesight at the first examination. Then they refused to receive this as an excuse, when the new soldier slipped out and has not been heard of since. Quite likely Bob could see nothing but Spaniards in his imagination which gave him such a scare that he didn't wish to go to Cuba.

We had the pleasure of attending the Singing last Sunday at the Long Tubes conducted by Uncle Marvin Grizzle, and never enjoyed ourselves any better for the same length of time. We can neither sing, whistle or make a noise on a Jews harp but we were always fond of good music, both instrumental and vocal. The old man was assisted by several other gray headed men and a number of beautiful young ladies that were a perfect picture of health which of course made the music sweeter. The leader didn't sing any of the highfaluting songs that are used in town the noise of which is similar to that of a choiced calf or like some foreigner in distress, but sang soul stirring songs which he learned at least fifty years ago.

Some nights ago a freight train was robbed near Marietta of quite a quantity of flour. Several negroes, supposed to be connected with the robbery, were arrested, including Geo. Underwood who used to live in Cleveland. The day afterwards a strange negro called on Marshal Bruce, who told the officer that the sheriff of Douglass county had sent him out in search of a man wanted in that county who was supposed to be in Lumpkin county, and asked him to assist him in searching for the man later on. Marshal Bruce asked for a description of the fugitive but the negro said that he had lost it. Then he went away to return but failed to do so. Afterwards the marshal found out that he was a negro from Marietta whose name is Coleman and no doubt was one of those train robbers or one who was connected with it in some way. The negro was over at Rans Burdells when he heard that Marshal Bruce had been enquiring about him and he stopped off and the next time he was heard from had stolen a pair of shoes in Dawsonville. Geo. Moore met him this side of Auraria Monday coming towards Dahlonega with the shoes in his hand. This negro used to work at the Barnside House.

Judge Tate made a trip down in to Banks county last week.

Dr. C. H. Wheelchel tendered his resignation as registrar the other day and Judge Kimsey appointed H. D. Gurley in his place.

Oh how bashful some young men are. It is said that one in Dahlonega the other day had to take on eight bottles of beer before he could ask a young lady for her company.

James Meaders and wife, of Maysville, and Rev. J. J. Meaders, of the Memphis conference, also accompanied by his wife, after visiting relatives in Dahlonega a few days this week, take their departure today.

John W. Weaver is engaged in mining on the Benny Parks place recently purchased by him and is doing well. Mr. Weaver, when not mining is just like a fish out of water. He will follow the business until prevented by death or old age.

The jury commissioners of this county composed of W. H. Early, Joseph Allen, Caleb Seabolt, B. F. Satterfield, Joseph Christopher and G. W. Cochran, are now at work revising the jury list. The latter gentleman was appointed in L. W. Cochran's place, who had resigned.

When Sam Goudlock, the father of the boy who was fined $3 for whipping his sister last week, came home and heard of it, it is said that the old man bought a buggy whip and wore the young man out. This does more good than all the council fines. If other parents would follow this example there would be less mischief done and save them much trouble in the end.

Walt Ward, who was mining across the Findley Ridge on property belonging to Col. Price, has finished up and left for some unknown region. He took out six and a half tons of ore and had Will Rice and Frank Worley to haul it to the Murray mill where he got permission from superintendent Chester to beat it. He told Mr. Chester in the afternoon before he finished crushing it that night that he would sleep at the mill the rest of the night and they would clean up the next morning. Next morning Mr. Chester went up and found Ward and the gold both gone. He had cleaned up sometime during the night and left out without paying any rents or for the hauling. He was not early that morning by Steward Green, making his way in the direction of Clarksville. Ward returned the other night and said that he only made four penny-weights and is gone again.

They wouldn't let Ike Reid go to Cuba the other day but he went across the Blue Ridge courting and got into a worse fix than if he had been retreating from the Spaniards in the wild woods of Cuba. He went to see his girl and she was so pretty and sweet that he remained until the shadows of the evening covered her beautiful appearance and he started home—ten miles—after nightfall, and while traveling along the dark, lonesome road thinking of the "idle of his heart," a rain came up and he missed his path and got out in the mountains wandering about in the dark unable to see his hand before him. So dark and dangerous was his journey that he got down on his hands and knees and crawled about slowly to keep from going headlong down some rock cliff which would have certainly wound up all court-ing expeditions with him in the future. What a dreadful thought. While he ceased moving a moment to rest and more thoroughly study the map of the mountain he heard the note of warning by a rattler, and down the mountain he went on his all fours over rocks and logs and through the laurels. Fortunately he made the trip to the foot of the mountain with whole bones but had lost his favorite tie, collar and umbrell. When he reached home it was daylight and he got the liniment and rubbed the many blue spots that were on his body. He has since been sending his words of love to his favorite one by letter.

The damage to the roads this week by the heavy rains, has been great.

G. W. Bruce is quite sick.

A little child of Joe Ash, died this week.

Dr. Smith, of New Bridge, is improving.

Chas. Fitts' child at Randa, is expected to die.

Miss Sallie Reid is up on a visit from Clarksville and will remain until after camp meeting.

M. J. Williams returned this week from a visit to his brother-in-law, John Holcomb in Albama.

A deputy sheriff of Dawson county came up Tuesday night and caused the arrest of H. D. Strickland, charged with misdemeanor, who made bond and went down the next morning.

The bids for the Dahlonega public school house were not opened Saturday as first decided but the matter was postponed until yesterday at 10 o'clock. Seven different parties bid as follows: John Stone, $1,574; Hunter & Co., $2,070; Ricketts & Co., $2,395; W. H. McAfee, $2,175; Strickland & Co., $2,870; Crockett & Baldwin, $1,570.66; J. B. Daniels, $2,275. The contract has not yet been awarded.

Wednesday night awhile after one of the heaviest rainfalls this year and the Chestate river began to rise the distress whistle on the Burch boat commenced blowing. Its peculiar and distressing noise alarmed a number of our citizens who had never heard it before. The Marshal, together with an assistant ran clear to the other end of town two trips, the last time carrying his dog, to see if he could locate the trouble. Joseph Christopher and Caleb Seabolt, who had gone to bed got up and also made a fruitless search for whereabouts of the noise.

The district meeting which closed at Cleveland last week was largely attended and full of interest. Those who attended were well cared for by the hospitable citizens of the quiet little town in the mountains, nothing occurring to make the occasion unpleasant except a severe storm Friday afternoon which made the church and many other buildings shake from top to bottom, alarming many ladies and children in the church.

Thomas Lee, overseer of Lumpkin county's poor farm, came down last Monday and stopped his paper because we didn't publish a communication in reply to a short article in the NUGGET some weeks ago in reference to the burial of a pauper. It contained the names of his neighbors and many other things causing us to have to boil it down and only give the essence so as not to be compelled to get out an extra. We would not have published it for a half interest in the poor farm when we could set him right in a much shorter article. But we will state that the NUGGET will not have to suspend publication because Mr. Lee has got hot under the collar and refuses to support it. Everybody here knows Tom Lee. He is a clever man. We always liked him and do yet. And when a change is made in our location and both of us are fortunate enough to reach that beautiful city not made with hands we will enjoy Tom Lee's company just the same as if he had been a constant reader of our paper up to the time of his departure.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 12 1898.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

Gov. Johnston's majority over his populist opponent in the Alabama election was 57,282.

It may be that the populists of Lumpkin county will put out a candidate for the legislature.

Twelve true bills were returned by the Dawson court last week, six of which were disposed of.

In Havana scores die daily of starvation. Money and wine are plentiful but food cannot be bought.

A company has been organized in Cleveland, Ohio, for the purpose of manufacturing smokeless powder.

The Atlanta Commercial says there is a lively suspicion that yellow fever exists at Fort McPherson, Atlanta.

There are now one republican and three democrats in Lumpkin county asking the voters to send them to the legislature.

Col. H. H. Perry, chairman of the city schools of Gainesville, wants $5,030, to run the colored and white schools of that city per annum.

The present war has been a great blessing to many a poor woman. It has been the cause of over 1,000,000 getting employment that were idle.

Bush, the Englishman, who was found guilty of misappropriating $2,500, in Hall Superior Court last week was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

In spite of the protests which are being made from the southern states, the immune regiments will be sent to do garrison work at Santiago and take the place of the troops that are being brought back to this country.

Six thousand citizens of North Georgia gathered at Mt. Airy on the 3rd from various counties to rally in harmony the action of the United States in declaring war with Spain for the sake of humanity. They forget the suffering it has caused already in the United States, making orphans, widows and cripples.

When court adjourned in Dawsonville last week the crowded courtroom endorsed Judge Kinsey for Judge, which certainly shows that he is the choice of that county. He has generally been light on defendants, except women who sell liquor, and those having criminal business in court feel near to Judge Kinsey.

Col. Charters received the endorsement of Dawson county grand jury last week. Besides this he has the endorsement of those of Towns, Union, White and Lumpkin. In addition to this he has the endorsement of all of the bar of these counties. This proves that Col. Charters is the choice of the people of the circuit, and we feel confident that he will be our next Solicitor General.

The sickness among Gen. Shafter's army at Santiago is fearful. Near 4,000 soldiers are suffering from different kind of diseases, and the Secretary of war has seen proper to relieve his army of further duty at Santiago and as fast as possible transport the soldiers to Montauk point, on Long Island. The sick will not be removed as it is believed to be the best for them to remain where they are.

George Alsbrook informs us that Babe Weaver, of Rock Creek, Gilmer county, is very low with milk sick. This is a very dangerous disease to which cattle and people are subject, in some of the deep coves of the mountainous section of North Georgia. But little seems to be known of it by the medical profession and the only known remedy for it is peach brewer and honey. It is often mistaken for typhoid fever, but under that treatment death is almost sure. Southern world.

Peoples Party Mass Meeting.

The people's party of Lumpkin county are hereby requested to meet in the court house at Dahlonega in mass meeting Saturday, Aug. 27th, 1898 at 12 o'clock M., to attend to some very important business. Every body who are friendly to reform in politics are cordially invited to meet with us.

M. C. FERGUSON, Chairman.

Y. A. HIGGINS, Secy.

War News.

Wednesdays papers bring us a revival in war news. While the President and few others are discussing secretly Spain's reply to conditions of peace in Washington, American blood is being shed on the soil of the Philippines. On the night of July 31st they fought, guided only by the flashes of lightning, resulting in the Americans losing ten killed and forty wounded. While it is believed that 300 Spaniards were killed and 900 wounded. News reaches us the same day that Gen. Wilson took the town of Coamo with a loss of only seven and captured 180 prisoners. And Gen. Miles reports that he needs no more troops at Porto Rico.

"Shotgun" Walker comes to the front this week through the columns of the Nugget and asks the people of Lumpkin county to support him for sheriff. The candidate needs no introductory remarks from us as he is known to every voter in the county and has a sufficient knowledge of business to discharge the duties of sheriff or any other office in the county.

Put Your Finger on Your Pulse

You feel the blood rushing along. But what kind of blood? That is the question. Is it pure blood or impure blood?

If the blood is impure then you are weak and languid; your appetite is poor and your digestion is weak. You cannot sleep well and the morning finds you unprepared for the work of the day. Your cheeks are pale and your complexion is sallow. You are troubled with pimples, boils, or some eruption of the skin. Why not purify your blood?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It will do it. Take it a few days and then put your finger on your pulse again. You can feel the difference. It is stronger and your circulation better. Send for our book on Impure Blood.

If you are bilious, take Ayer's Pills. They greatly aid the Sarsaparilla. They cure constipation also.

Write to our Doctors. Write them freely all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply, without cost. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Does Baby Thrive?

If your baby is delicate and sickly and its food does not nourish it, put fifteen or twenty drops of Scott's Emulsion in its bottle three or four times a day and you will see a marked change.

We have had abundant proof that they will thrive on this emulsion when other food fails to nourish them.

It is the same with larger children that are delicate. Scott's Emulsion seems to be the element lacking in their food. Do not fail to try it if your children do not thrive. It is as useful for them in summer as in winter.

Ask your doctor if this is not true.

Mr. Down's Card.

We publish on our first page today a statement from John A. Downs, U. S. Deputy Marshal of Blairsville, taken from the Jasper Republican, in reply to a short article appearing in the Nugget in reference to his official acts, or his posse, while on a raid in this county a few weeks ago. After receiving a letter from Mr. Downs denying the charges we wrote to him that we would publish any statement that he might wish to make, but he didn't want the people of Lumpkin county to see the falsehoods he desired to make and therefore had his article appear in the Jasper Republican, a good newsy paper, but one that is too far away to catch many of the eyes of the people of this county, the place where it was reported that "the crime was committed."

Mr. Downs very much reminds us of the young fellow that was elected bailiff once. The bailiff put his official signature over which he composed. One day he wrote his girl a love letter and after finishing it up placed "L. C." after his signature. And it seems that Mr. Downs takes as much pleasure in putting a handle to his name as this young bailiff did. If this official was called in to court we suppose the officer would have to call out: "John A. Downs, U. S. Deputy Marshal, Union county, Ga.," or he would not answer and the business of the court would have to proceed without his appearance unless this long handle was attached to his name.

We never said that the charges made by Mr. John Fields were true, but we have every reason to believe that he is not mistaken altogether for he is an "upright and intelligent man." So say the Jury Commissioners of Lumpkin county and not a cut-throat and a liar as Mr. Downs would have you to believe. He is not mistaken in all of his statements, as a gentleman told us last Saturday that he saw Mr. H. E. King on his way to Esquire H. J. Stancels a few days ago, and the supposition is that he was going to secure a warrant for Ben Allison, as it is said, that he is very much dissatisfied with the actions of Allison in trying to shoot him. And there is Ben Swain, another man whose name is in the jury box, and he tells much about Ben Allison's bad conduct that night. Surely all of them can't be mistaken.

It is a pleasure to have an opportunity of presenting Down's statement to our readers this week, for every man in Lumpkin county knows that what he has said about us being such a friend to the moonshiner and such a lover of blockade liquor is false, for we do not use it nor encourage its use or manufacture. But where men will violate the law they should be treated in a humane manner by both arresting officers and their assistants.

Mr. Downs speaks of that section as "being infested with moonshiners." We do not know what makes him have this opinion of the people up there. Had they been such desperate characters as he speaks of they would have certainly woke up to a sense of their duty when this trouble was going on up there that night. No, there is no danger. Jim Harbison has traveled all through that country alone both day and night and never was harmed. And if there had been any danger Mr. King would not have returned. A man with the proper amount of grit in his gizzard has no fears of traveling anywhere in Lumpkin county, either day or night. Even our present Deputy Marshal, Dennis Grizzle, who is too big and fat to get out of the way if they were to get after him, goes any where he pleases in that section and is not even insulted, much less harmed.

We do not wonder at Mr. Downs having to make his article "salty." Had he not used something on it the many lies in the statement would have caused it to have had the scent of a dead horse before it could have been examined.

Mrs. James Clark died near Nacoochee, in White county last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moose are up from the Big Joa to remain until camp meeting.

An Illinois regiment of negroes, all the officers of which are negroes, has been ordered to Santiago for garrison duty.

E. J. Williams, a former citizen of Lumpkin county, has been nominated for sheriff of Union county by the democratic primary held there last week.

We are informed by parties who have returned from White county that W. H. Courtney has declined to make the race for the Senate against Col. J. W. H. Underwood.

Dr. Castleberry, of Murrayville, is very happy this week over the arrival of the first baby at his house after a marriage of fifteen years. Ned Parks has one at his house and is rejoicing too.

The trial of Henry Roark, charged with the murder of Earnest Findley in Gainesville some weeks ago, began in that city last Monday, with Judge W. H. Felton, Jr., presiding.

The jury commissioners wound up their work last Saturday at noon. They found 548 men that are competent to sit on the jury, being 88 less than last time. Out of the 548 jurors 438 were decided to be suitable for grand jurors, 3 less than at the last revision. The following shows the number in each district: Auraria—total 59, 11 being jurors; Crumby—18, 5 grand; Cane Creek—28, 9 grand; Chestate—42, 13 grand; Davis—24, 6 grand; Dahlonega 92, 40 grand; Frog Town—13, grand 5; Hightower—31, grand 6; Jones' Creek—74 grand 3; Mill Creek—23, grand 5; Martin's Ford—32, grand 10; Nimbleshill—46, grand 16; Porter Springs—38, grand 8; Shoal Creek—38, grand 13; Wahoo—17, grand 8; Yahoola—38, grand 12.

James Hashaw, col., who used to live in Dahlonega, but had gone up from Gainesville to work for Col. Farrow at the Springs, was brought down this week and lodged in jail in default of a hundred dollar bond for carrying concealed weapons. One day last week he had a row in the dining room of the hotel with some other waiters and pulled out his little pistol, which caused his freedom to be cut off suddenly. Col. Farrow went up and swore out a warrant for the negro which resulted as above stated. The Colonel has better order up at the Springs there we do in Dahlonega. When one of his waiters commits a small offense he fines him such an amount as the case justifies. While in Dahlonega a defendant after entering a plea of guilt is fined lightly, and if no candidate is present to stand for him he signs up a note for the money, which generally ends the matter.

The advance guard of the fleet of Spanish transports, which are to take home Gen. Toral's men, have arrived at Santiago and the work of deporting the Spanish prisoners will be begun at once.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR.
To the voters of Lumpkin County. I announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of tax collector. Thanking you for past favors and hoping my efforts to serve you for the past year will meet your approval, and if so I feel sure I will have your support in the coming election.

Yours Truly,
J. F. SARGENT.
We are requested to announce the name of George W. Walker, Jr., as a candidate for tax collector of Lumpkin county who promises to discharge the duties of such office to the best of his ability and to the satisfaction of all if elected.

FOR TAX RECEIVER.
We are authorized to announce the name of J. A. Anderson for Tax Receiver of Lumpkin county at the ensuing election in October.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.
I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Surveyor of Lumpkin county and will appreciate any assistance which the voters will give me in the coming October election.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.
We are authorized to announce the name of J. V. Harbison as a candidate to represent Lumpkin county in the House of the next legislature.

To the voters of Lumpkin county: Having been solicited by many friends, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the legislature, and if elected promise the people to make them a faithful and efficient member, asking the support of the voters.

S. M. GRIZZLE.
I respectfully announce myself a candidate to represent Lumpkin county in the next legislature of this state and will appreciate the votes of my friends and if elected will do all I can for the county's best interests.

I am respectfully,
F. M. WILLIAMS.
I respectfully announce myself as a candidate to represent the county that gave me birth, in the next general assembly, and true to my convictions, should I be honored, I pledge you that I will represent my county to the best of my ability and solicit your favorable consideration to my candidacy.

W. H. McAFEE.

FOR CLERK.
To the voters of Lumpkin county. I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Clerk of the Superior Court. I am very thankful to the people for their support in the past, and will, if re-elected, serve them faithfully and to the best of my ability. Respectfully soliciting the aid of all.

J. H. MOORE.
I respectfully announce myself as a candidate for clerk of the superior court of Lumpkin county and ask the support of all voters regardless of their race or politics or mission if elected, to serve them to the best of my ability.

G. C. WALLACE.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.
To the voters of Lumpkin county: I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of county treasurer and hope to receive a hearty support from you. Thanking you for past favors and hoping for a continuance of the same, I am yours respectfully.

E. F. JACKSON.

FOR SHERIFF.
To the voters of Lumpkin County: I announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff of Lumpkin county and respectfully ask the voters to give me their support. If elected I will faithfully perform the duties of such office to the best of my ability.

Respectfully,
J. M. DAVIS.

To the Voters of Lumpkin County:

At the solicitation of many friends throughout the county I have decided to make the race for Sheriff and respectfully solicit the support of all the voters.

Respectfully,
M. G. HEAD.

We are authorized to announce the name of James B. Anderson for sheriff of Lumpkin county at the ensuing October election who expects to be in the race until the polls are closed that evening.

To the voters of Lumpkin county:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for sheriff of Lumpkin county and earnestly ask your support at the ballot box at the October election, promising to make a faithful officer if elected.

J. M. DENNY.

To the voters of Lumpkin county:

I announce myself a candidate for sheriff at the October election and earnestly solicit your help at the polls.

Respectfully,
S. D. GRINDLE.

To the voters of Lumpkin county:

At the solicitation of many friends, I hereby announce myself a candidate for Sheriff of Lumpkin county. I am in the race to the end, and if elected, shall do all in my power to make the people a faithful and efficient officer.

R. N. MAY.

To the voters of Lumpkin county:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff of said county soliciting your liberal support at the polls. Hoping my candidacy will meet your approval and that I may receive your hearty support which will be long remembered and highly appreciated, promising if elected to discharge the duties of said office in an efficient obliging manner.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 12, 1898

Either a light or heavy shower visits us every day.

It is stated that Dahlonega will soon have another drug store.

H. H. Thomas is making some needed repairs on his stable on Park street.

The candidates are now on the go, making general raids throughout the county.

Miss Ethel Jones, of Jay, visited her sister, Mrs. Ben Anderson, in Dahlonega this week.

There is now plenty of water for mining purposes and the employers and employees are happy.

Mrs. Elener Sims, of Macon, is at the Hall House and will likely spend three or four weeks in Dahlonega.

John P. Stegall and his son-in-law Mr. Abrahamson, of Emerson, were in Dahlonega on business last Saturday.

Revs. Tom Coko Hughes, of Blairsville, Hubert Smith, of LaGrange and Mr. Turly of Ellijay, are all at the camp ground.

Send in $3.00 and jump in the Nugget's political band wagon and take a ride. Don't try to foot it. If you do you will get left.

Capt. F. W. Hall is pushing his improvements on the old Besser House with great rapidity and hopes to have the building in good shape in a few more days.

Mrs. Annie Comer, a sister of Mrs. DuPre, of Dahlonega, and Miss Shelly, both of Gainesville, have been in Dahlonega for several days, the guest of Mrs. DuPre.

R. B. Green, B. H. Malcom and W. H. Nunnally, of Monroe, were registered at the Hall House Monday. Their visit was quite short but very pleasant to those who formed their acquaintance.

Albert Wheelchel, of Hall county, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Dahlonega making preparations to enter his three daughters in the N. G. A. College when its session opens next month.

Frank Hunt, who is in the tombstone business at Gainesville, put in his appearance Monday and stopped at the Burnside. This gentleman is one of the old college boys of many years ago and always receives a hearty welcome in Dahlonega.

We understand that some of the candidates who are members of the church, have already commenced treating on liquor. Men who are in favor of bringing about misery and distress in this manner most certainly have little hopes of getting to heaven.

Our old friend W. H. Reid, came down from Yahoola last Monday and exchanged jokes with the candidates and his many friends in Dahlonega. Mr. Reid is the only life time subscriber that we have. He does not pay for the entire time in advance, but hands us a wheel annually.

Our old friend Mr. E. Carroll went down to Jefferson this week to testify against a man who used to live in White county that had been marrying too many women. While the old man was a Justice of the Peace in White he married him and a lady of that county who, after remaining with her only about three months, went down to Jackson and took in another—making the third living wife.

The laborers down at the Hand mine will have their fun with each other, matters not what it costs. The other day while before Piercean Grindle departed for home a few miles out in the country, after spending a week in the mines near Dahlonega, one of his mischievous companions, so it is said, secured a females bonnet and slipped it into a little bundle that he carried. Imagine the husbands appearance and feelings when the wife pulled from the package a bonnet that she well knew its owner.

A son of Wm. Satterfield of this county died a few days ago.

Mrs. Mollie McFee is gone to see relatives in White county.

Hughes Moore is over from the Big Joe taking in the camp meeting.

Carpenter John Redmond will commence to repair the Bearden's bridge in a few days.

Jim Tate, was down from Chestate this week cracking jokes with the boys and smiling pleasantly at the ladies.

Ben Gaillard is confined to his room on account of one of his eyes being badly inflamed, from which he is unable to see anything.

Misses A. and L. Morrell, connected with the Girls Industrial School at Millville, are stopping at the Allen House for a few days.

The other night, during a storm lightning struck a single corn stalk on the farm of Joseph Walden, residing near town, making a hole in the ground the size of a man's hat. Nothing else was touched.

Mr. Spencer, who has the contract of building the dormitory kitchen and dining room, commenced operation this week. He got the framing at his home and it will not take long for him to complete the job.

Bob Beck, who "flew the track" in Atlanta after enlisting in the army, was in Dahlonega this week. Bob saw the wounded soldiers at McPherson and heard of the enemy and that was sufficient for him. But what if the army's loss is our gain.

Last Sunday night some kind of a snake stuck its fangs in one of Dora Anderson's shoes as he was returning home. It is said that all poisonous snakes are blind during Dog Days and we suppose it was one of this kind that made a lick at Mr. Anderson's No. 10's as he was trudging along. Most certainly it was a very narrow escape.

Messrs. Jones, Waddell and Jones, of Chicago, who are interested in mica mining in this and Union counties, passed through this week, going to and from their mining operations, stopping at the Burnside House. They secured several options on property in Lumpkin county while here this time. The company's headquarters is at Gainesville.

Merchant Joe Miller has struck it right. Whenever a fellow comes to him for a favor who has spent his money with the merchants in Gainesville, he tells him to "go to Gainesville where he can do better." The result is men comes for miles to trade with him and by so doing keeps the money at home. Other merchants should follow the example of Mr. Miller.

The contractors who build the dormitory and the building committee have compromised their differences and the building has been received. W. G. Spencer is now engaged in building the kitchen and dining room and will have everything ready for the boys to go to cooking and eating by the first of next month. A reduction of $25 was agreed to and the contractors allowed something for extra services and after this the difference didn't amount to much.

The trial of Mrs. Elias Grizzle, daughter of Timmon Davis, came off last Monday. At the appointed hour Col. W. S. Huff, who assisted Judge Tate, called the jury and those who always try lunatics in Lumpkin county answered but one. His place was filled and the witnesses were introduced. After the testimony all closed the jury was left alone to decide the case and a majority favored the subject being sent to the asylum and a verdict was made to that effect. Mrs. Grizzle was then permitted to go back and remain with her father until the authorities at Millville can be heard from. The unfortunate lady remarked that her mind became confused at times and quite likely she will soon recover which she gets to where she can receive proper treatment.

The prospect for a good corn crop was never better in this section.

Frank Meaders, who has been in Atlanta for some time, is now with the old folks at home.

Mrs. Cooper, who has been on a visit to her mother and other relatives for some time, has returned home.

Uncle Goodman Hughes, the oldest citizen in Dahlonega, is attending camp meeting this week.

A lady frequently carries the Yahoola mail. This is why it always comes in and goes out on time.

Ladies' Oxford shoes. Price reduced 12 per cent. Only a few pairs left.

B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

W. W. Crisson has been appointed constable for this district to fill the vacancy caused by James Walker enlisting in the army. He made bond and is now ready for business.

Prof. Witherspoon has returned from a two weeks visit below. The professor has been engaged in surveying out land lots during vacation of the college and has not had much time to devote in pleasure trips.

Mr. Whorton, down at the Calhoun, is pushing his work through rapidly. He has a large force of hands employed and pays them the cash for their labor, which makes it very satisfactory to a laboring man.

F. V. Moose is still mining at the Ivey Mine. He made another clean up last week and says he expects to do better this week. He exchanged a gold nugget for a paper Nugget and we are happy and so is he.

D. T. Harris was over from the Big Joe Mine last Sunday. Of course we didn't talk to him about business on the Lord's day, but discovered from his appearance that he was doing well. Prosperity always shows on a person's face.

Sixteen more visitors came to Porter Springs last Saturday. Others will arrive as soon as there is room. They have a lively crowd up there now. A colored string band is on hand and as soon as guests drink that mineral water they feel like dancing, passing away many pleasant hours at the Queen of the Mountains.

Our readers' attention is called to the announcement of John H. Moore to be found elsewhere, who is a candidate for re-election to the office of Clerk of the Superior Court. John has held this office for some years and his manner of discharging its duties is too well known to the people of Lumpkin county to receive any comment from us.

Rev. J. M. Foster, Miss Buford Thompson and Miss Nannie Bell, of Swainsboro, arrived in our city last Friday and took up quarters at the Meaders House. Mr. Foster interested a large congregation at the Methodist Church last Sunday at 11 o'clock by delivering one of his able sermons. The divine is now assisting in carrying on the meeting at the Dahlonega camp ground. It is a pleasure to all of having the appearance of such an able divine as Mr. Foster in our midst.

Col. Price is now making a tour through the county delivering addresses in the interest of our public schools. He will visit every school house in the county and come face to face with the pupil, parent and teacher and show them why they should take more interest in the educational advantages while the opportunity is offered. The Colonel is a great friend to education and we are glad that his health has recovered sufficiently for him to make this trip. The people need waking up to a sense of their duty on this line, and the Colonel can arouse them from their slumbers and be able to tell them something that will, we hope, keep them awake.

Sheriff Brookshier says that he is no candidate for the legislature and don't expect to be.

Mrs. Floyd Brookshier killed a large rattlesnake down at Judge Brittain's farm last week.

John Lance and Miss Sarah Reese were wedded in the upper portion of the county a few days ago.

Soule's Chapel Sunday School will have a celebration on the 20th inst. And Etowah has theirs tomorrow.

The rain bursted the Barlow dam last week but the necessary repairs have been made and everything is moving along as usual down there.

By mutual agreement the firm of Moore & McGuire has been dissolved. Mr. Moore has bought out Mr. McGuire, who will hereafter conduct the business.

The time for meeting at the colored camp ground in this county has been changed on account of the unpleasant weather for such purposes in October. It now embraces the second Sunday in next month.

The Dahlonega camp meeting is now in progress. We trust that much good will be accomplished and if any profess religion that they will hold out more faithful than some who decided to make a change at this place of worship heretofore.

The postmaster at Half Way is getting pretty careless in handling the mail matter. Week before last he carried the bundle of Nuggets out to a neighbors house, half a mile distant, and closed up the post office and went to Gainesville, and the result was some of our patrons failed to get their papers.

R. N. Mays is a candidate for sheriff, as will be seen under the proper heading. Mr. Mays was born and reared in Lumpkin county and is well known to all of our county readers. Has always been a good, quiet, law abiding citizen, and a man who makes a living by his industrious habits—using the plow and hoe. He says that he expects to make a fair and square race and will use no liquor for the purpose of securing votes. The gentleman will make it lively for his opponents before the battle is over.

As was mentioned last week H. D. Strickland was arrested on a Dawson county warrant charging him with misdemeanor. We did not publish particulars then for we could not obtain them. They are as follows: While Homer was in Dawsonville a few days ago the marshal was being crowded while endeavoring to put a fellow in the lock up and he saw proper to give officer some assistance. Some of the prisoners friends saw Homers pistol and they decided that they would seek revenge by prosecuting him. The fine was only $5 and at last accounts the town council was talking about paying it.

Dr. R. L. Hope, spent a couple of days in Dahlonega this week accompanied by his son Horris and Misses Mattie Christopher, Lula Hope, Lilly Head, and O. T. Head, all of Atlanta Heights and Miss L. J. Henderson, Easton, Ga. They are out for pleasure and health, having their own conveyances and stop wherever they see proper. They are on their way home now. While here they visited Cane Creek Falls and several of the mining operations. Dr. Hope used to live in Dahlonega and left here while a boy. He attended preaching at the Methodist church, the first time he had been in the building for thirty-five years. Not a single face did he recognize. The Doctor said that he was reminded of an incident as soon as entering the church that occurred the last time he was in it. They were taking the sacrament at that time and he could not see why they didn't serve him. This incident had slipped his memory during the long period of time but as soon as he stepped into the church he thought of it.

Mrs. Carrie Copeland, of Nelson, is visiting her parents.

Miss Mollie Carroll is on a visit to relatives in White county.

John Huff has moved back from the Calhoun to his farm at Halt Way.

Miss Anna Worley has returned from Nelson after an extended visit.

Joseph Rice, a son of W. M. Rice, of Milner, Ga., is here on a few days visit to relatives, being the first time he has been to Dahlonega in 12 years.

We heard of a member of the temperance society being out the other night taking on a considerable quantity of wine. It was like pouring water in a sink hole.

We notice that Rev. A. F. Norton, who used to reside in Dahlonega has gone from Cleveland to Lula. We wish him success wherever he goes, as he is a good man and one who is liked by every one who knows him.

Frank Parshal and his wife are here on a few days visit from Atlanta. Mrs. Parshal was raised in Dahlonega and it is always a pleasure for her to return to the home of her childhood, and her friends are always glad to see her.

William, son of Wash Christy, Lumpkin county was badly injured at the Nacoochee mine in White county by a blast Monday. He was re-drilling a hole, the load having failed to go off, when the cap exploded and he was painfully injured. He was unconscious for some time after the accident.

If we were in the meeting business and had any thing to do with the Dahlonega camp ground we would favor a change in holding the meeting in the dry season of the year or abandon the whole thing as people cannot attend. A person don't care to go to a camp ground and wade through mud and water, matters not how religious he is.

We noticed a lad the other day who had been sentenced to work out a fine of three dollars, with a hoe on one shoulder and a box swung across the other, which contained a blacking brush and shoe polishing outfit. We suppose when he strikes a fellow that wants his shoes shined that he performs the work and puts the money into the city treasury. This is a "new wrinkle."

Wm. Campbell, of the Jones Mine in White county, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Jesse Castleberry, spent last Saturday night in Dahlonega. Mr. Campbell reports the operations at the Jones as moving along all right, digging out much of the precious metal. They have opened out more than two very large valuable veins and the mine is in good shape, sufficient ore being in sight to run the mill for some time to come.

During the trial of Mrs. Grizzle for lunacy last Monday it was stated that the lady had six little children and a husband who were very poor and had a bad way of getting along. After the trial J. V. Harbison, one of the jurors drew up a paper for all the members of the jury to sign, giving their fee of one dollar each to the distressed husband and little ones. At last accounts Mr. Harbison and Mr. John Housley were the only ones that were willing to make the donation and the family only get two dollars out of the twelve.

Henry Towery, of Gainesville, accompanied by the tax collector of Hall, dropped into the Burnside Tuesday night. They were after a fellow named Sexton, who was "running" a horse which had been levied on and the collector had signed a bond for the forthcoming of the property. The man had been seen with the horse in a buggy traveling the upper Gainesville road making his way towards Dahlonega. He must have went on to Porter Springs and across the mountain as nothing could be heard of him in Dahlonega.

Minister Cooper told the congregation at the camp ground this week that they had not met for a picnic but to save souls. This should be the object of all who go there but it is not always the case.

Some of the boys who went to the war from Dahlonega write back that they are dissatisfied. Just as we expected. There is a big difference when you give up the soft feather bed at home and go out and roost on the ground with a rock under your head for a pillow.

E. Y. Crockett, one of the parties who put in a bid for the Dahlonega school house was up from Atlanta this week making an investigation. He says that a house like the one proposed could be built in that city for $1,200. He went home without saying whether he would do the work or not.

R. C. Thompson, of Delaware, Ohio, and A. W. Adams, of Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived in our town last Wednesday afternoon, to be joined by other gentlemen, who are interested in mining, to-day. Mr. Adams represents some capitalists, who, it is reported, have traded for the Wahls mining property in this county.

Reeves Whitmire quit paying a poll tax some years ago but last Sunday when he found that he was over a rattlesnake while stepping across a small pile of brush down in Manuel Howell's field, he found himself as active as a showman. Such a high and lengthy jump is rarely ever seen in this country even by the most active young men.

It is said that a certain clerk of a church over in Shoal Creek district whipped his mother last Sunday and came near putting one of her eyes out because she corrected one of his children. The old lady is going about with a bandage around her head. This is very nice conduct for an official member of the church. This is worse than the Spaniards treated the Cubans before the war. If Uncle Sam had have waited a little while he could have found some right at home that needed correcting without going to Cuba.

Every candidate asking for a county office is our friend, but we hope that all who use liquor for the purpose of securing office will be defeated. The distribution of liquor causes rows, bloodshed, and keeps up taxes and candidates for Clerk of the Court and Sheriff, who are successful are greatly benefited. Their supply of liquor causes cases to be made against defendants and they are entitled to a big bill of cost. We should not vote for men that care not what amount of trouble it brings about and the amount of money it takes to run the courts so they are personally benefited.

Last week U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle, of Dahlonega, and three assistants visited an illicit distillery in charge of Dave Roberts, Jr., and George Dickerson in White county. Both were brought to town and lodged in jail Friday night. Next day Richardson was tried by authority of an old warrant, who was found guilty and made bond. There was no deputy marshal present to swear out a warrant and Roberts was kept in jail without any commitment or the scratch of a pen until a warrant could be received from Atlanta, from Friday night until Tuesday night, when he was tried, bound over and released on bond. There this poor man remained in confinement without any written authority, away from his home and friends, and at the same time men were here ready and anxious to sign his bond. Why wasn't he turned loose like his companion who was equally as guilty as this unfortunate fellow? Really the other man was the guiltiest because there was already a warrant against him. The officer was looking after his own interest. He knew that there would be no trouble to get Dickerson as he would be under one bond, and if he was to let Roberts go he might have some trouble in catching him again. This explains it.

Burdening The Poor.

When by act of congress a tax was placed on telegraph messages and express packages the idea was that the corporations managing these matters should pay the tax.

But this is not at all the idea accepted by the corporations. With remarkable unanimity and cheerful alacrity the corporations have shifted the burden and are requiring the people who send telegraph messages and express packages to pay the tax.

Some misguided individuals are disposed to object to this proceeding, and are endeavoring through suits at law to force the corporations to pay the impost levied by the government. Suppose by some peculiar freak of the law this view of the people should be sustained. What would be gained?

Simply the privilege of paying the tax with a large per cent added for good measure in an increase by the corporations of their telegraph and express charges.

Fully 80 per cent of the war tax was placed on articles of necessity, thus directly burdening the people.

Out of the entire amount of taxation the poor are required to pay 60 per cent. It is estimated that 30 per cent will be paid by the fairly well to do and 10 per cent by the rich.

Death and taxation are said to come to all, but death is the only impartial visitation upon rich and poor alike.—Chicago Daily Dispatch.

Overwork, either physical or mental, will produce weakness and loss of energy. Too many business or family cares, overwork in the harvest field, an excess of woman's work and worry, will produce months of misery. To prevent this the exhausted system should be reinforced immediately. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is an appropriate remedy. Price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. A peculiarity noticed by the keepers at the London zoo is that bad weather affects lions just as it does human beings. A rainy day will make them limp and listless, and a glimpse of sunshine makes them happy as crickets.

A NEW TRIUMPH.

The Dreaded Consumption Can Be Cured.

T. A. Slocum, the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send to Sufferers, Three Free Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy to the afflicted, than the generous offer of the honored and distinguished chemist, T. A. Slocum, M. C., of New York City.

He has discovered a reliable and absolute cure for consumption, and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest disease, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions of wasting away; and to make this great merit known, he will send three free bottles of his newly discovered remedies to any afflicted reader of the Nugget.

Already his "new scientific system of medicine" has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it not only his professional, but his religious duty—a duty to which he owes to suffering humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

He has proved the "dreaded consumption" to be a curable disease beyond a doubt, in any climate, and has the honor in his American and European laboratories thousands of "heartfelt testimonials of gratitude" from those benefited and cured, in all parts of the world.

CROPS IN GEORGIA HELPED BY RAINS

No Further Cultivation After This Date Required.

WORK FOR COMING MONTH
Commissioner of Agriculture Nesbitt Urges Continued Activity In Carrying Out All Plans Formulated at the Beginning of the Year.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, ATLANTA, Aug. 1, 1898.
The widely distributed rains, following the long continued drought, have caused some shedding of the cotton, and, in some instances, came too late to rescue the corn crop, but, as a rule, crops throughout the state are in good condition and further cultivation after this date is not only unnecessary, but might prove actually harmful. The "laying by" of these standard crops should not mean a cessation of farm activity, nor an entire abandonment of the plans so carefully formulated in the beginning of the year. Fortunately for Georgia the strictly "cotton farm," except in rare instances, is a thing of the past.

In nearly all sections of the state there is hay to be saved, orchards and vineyards to be looked after, cattle and hogs to receive the proper care, and, lastly, fall crops to be prepared for. Another important branch of his work, to which the average farmer has been so far woefully indifferent, is the destruction of the various insect enemies, which are beginning to infest our fields and deplete our crops. To keep these in check it has become necessary that each individual farmer wage an incessant warfare on them. At this season much may be done to destroy their breeding places. In the stable fields, in the fence corners and in many byways they will be found entrenched, preparing for their winter accommodation in order to be ready in the spring to start out on their destructive work with the first warm days.

Neglected now the result will be an astonishing increase in numbers and in the amount of injury to various crops. In Tennessee in 1894 the chinch bug was observed in different sections of the state, but not in numbers sufficient to cause any alarm and no precautions were taken to prevent their reappearance. In 1895 a territory of nearly 600 square miles was literally covered by these depredators, and the farmers in this section not only sustained great loss by the actual injury to their crops, but were compelled to at considerable expense destroy the hordes of bugs which infested every part of their fields. We need not therefore lay the flattering unction to our souls that the season of "laying by" is a season of entire "rest."

While there may be a comparative lull in the driving work necessary to the proper management of your standard crops there are still various farm operations just as important which should not be "laid by." Indeed, after nearly 40 years' experience on the farm, we have come to the conclusion that for the up-to-date farmer, "laying by time" comes only when life itself ceases.

Because we have failed in one or even two trials with crimson clover we should not abandon the attempt to grow it. It is certainly a most valuable adjunct to our forage supply, besides performing for our lands during the winter the work which the pea crop accomplishes in the summer, namely, storing up both humus and nitrogen for future crops.

The general mistake in planting fall oats and rye, two of our most important crops, is that they are put in too late and the land is not made rich enough. If the seed are put in early and the crop forced forward by high manuring, the result is usually most satisfactory. In very cold weather it is always the risk spots which escape, sometimes when the poor thin spots are entirely killed out. The present year the spring oats were an entire failure, while the fall crop was unusually fine. August is none too early to begin the preparations for all crops to be sown in the fall. After the land is thoroughly broken it should be harrowed and reharrowed until smooth and fine. Time was when the preparation and cultivation of our lands, though of the rudest and most imperfect character, produced phenomenal crops, because the virgin soil abounded in the elements of plant food. But today, thoughtful farmers realize the fact that, even in our incomparable climate, where we can produce two or three crops on the same land each year, the time has passed when muscle can count against brain. All over the state we begin to see the evils of this.

Intelligent energy is taking the place of mere plodding. The farmers who have a well defined, thoroughly studied plan, which they follow with unflinching pertinacity, are the men who are forging to the front in successful agriculture. Science, by its discovery of complete plant foods, and by its equally important findings as to the food requirements of different crops, points out the means, but it remains for the farmer to hold the reins and means red by judicious rotation of crops, thorough preparation of the land and proper fertilization, to procure the chemical changes necessary to the most profitable development of his business. Some of the results of such careful methods are seen in the yields of wheat and oats reported to this department the present year, larger than in any year before, in some cases almost phenomenal.

THE STANDARD BALE.
Equally important with the careful selection and baling of our cotton is the necessity of meeting the complaints made by the various transportation companies and wharves against the different sizes of our American bales. The loss of space in storing these bales, and the consequent damaged condition in which our cotton reaches foreign markets, have given rise to a general protest, and it is our duty to meet the demand in this respect.

Interest to meet their demands in this respect.

The discriminations which may be made against our cotton on account of these objections may amount in the aggregate to an incredible sum. It has been found after several tests that the best size for convenience of handling and storing is the bale made from a press measuring 24 inches in width by 54 inches in length. This is the size advocated by all the cotton growers' associations. This size, 24x54, has been found to press to a greater density, and after being compressed for final shipment the original bagging will entirely cover the compressed bale and thus much of the injury from the rough handling of our cotton will be prevented.

All this redounds to the interest of the farmer, because all the extra expenses from waste of space, higher insurance and actual waste of cotton are charged against his cotton in the general account, and any method which will reduce these expenses will add much to the price.

In a circular addressed to the ginners of the south, issued by J. H. Sloan of Augusta, Ga., one of the leading cotton men of the south, he says that our cotton, as a rule, reaches the European manufacturers in such badly damaged condition that they refuse to pay a good price for it. He has made a study of this subject and is in a position which gives him every opportunity of ascertaining its true status. In his address to the ginners he says:

We take the liberty of calling your attention to the importance of exerting all our efforts in favor of the adoption of the standard size cotton bale, which is a bale made in a press box, measuring on the inside 24 inches wide by 54 inches long, and deep enough to make a bale weighing about 500 pounds.

It is well understood that the more cotton that can be stored in a steamer, the less the freight and consequently the more the cotton grower will receive for his crop. It naturally seems that a few inches in the size of bales would make no difference, but a few inches running irregularly through an ocean steamer amounts to a great loss of space, and in storing bales of irregular sizes, they are so screwed in odd shaped spaces as to often break, and nearly every one torn and twisted out of shape by the time they reach the foreign ports. The lost space also forms air passages and in case of a fire the damage is much greater, consequently the insurance is higher than it should be. The same complaints are made by the railroads and by the mills when they put their cotton in warehouses.

We think we have fully explained the reasons for this change, and that it is your interest to do all that is in your power to have every one make this change by next season. As a general rule, the smaller bales will have to be made smaller, either one way or both. This can be done with very little expense by lining the bales with boards, one lining on another where the size is to be reduced several inches. Then the follow block can be sewn off to fit the box. The cost of making this change in most cases will not exceed $3.00.

We have received letters from a majority of the ginners in our territory, and they promise to alter their press boxes to the standard size. We respectfully solicit the co-operation of all growers and those interested in the cotton crop, to urge upon the ginners the importance of making all bales of the standard size, as the success of this movement and the benefits to be derived from it depend upon them. We are confident that a large majority of the ginners will make this change, but it is necessary that the change be as near universal as possible.

Let farmers interest themselves in this to them, vital question, and urge upon their ginners the importance of a uniform size for press boxes.

R. H. Nesbitt, Commissioner.

PEACE

Has Been Proclaimed and War is at an End.

Washington, August 12.—Immediately after the protocol had been perfected by the signatures of M. Cambon, the authorized representative of Spain, and Secretary of State Day for his government, President McKinley issued the following proclamation:

By the President of the United States of America: A Proclamation. Whereas, By a protocol concluded and signed August 12, 1898, by William R. Day, secretary of state of the United States, and his excellency, Jules Cambon, ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary of the Republic of France, at Washington, respectively representing for this purpose the government of the United States and the government of Spain the United States and Spain have formally agreed upon the terms by which establishment of peace between the two countries shall be undertaken, and

Whereas, It is in said protocol agreed that upon its conclusion and signature hostilities between the two countries shall be suspended, and that notice to that effect shall be given as soon as possible by each government to the commanders of its military and naval forces;

Now, therefore, I, William McKinley, president of the United States, do in accordance with the stipulation of the protocol, declare and proclaim on the part of the United States a suspension of hostilities and do hereby command that orders be immediately given through the proper channels to the commanders of the military and naval forces of the United States to abstain from all acts inconsistent with this proclamation.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this 12th day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred and ninety-eight and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-third.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
By the President, WILLIAM R. DAY, Secretary of State.

An official statement for press publication setting out the provisions of the peace protocol was read and approved at the cabinet session today. It was prepared by Secretary Day, the purpose being to make it public immediately after the required signatures had been affixed to the protocol. It does not give the text of the document, but details its main points and provisions, which are as follows:

1. That Spain will relinquish all claim of sovereignty over and title to Cuba.

2. That Porto Rico and other Spanish islands in the West Indies and an island in the Ladrones, to be selected by the United States, shall be ceded to the latter.

3. That the United States will occupy and hold the city, bay and harbor of Manila, pending the conclusion of a treaty of peace, which shall terminate the control, disposition and government of the Philippines.

4. That Cuba, Porto Rico and other Spanish islands in the West Indies shall be immediately evacuated, and that commissioners to be appointed within ten days, shall within thirty days from the signing of the protocol, meet at Havana and San Juan respectively to arrange and execute the details of the evacuation.

5. That the United States and Spain will each appoint not more than five commissioners to negotiate and conclude a treaty of peace. The commissioners are to meet in Paris not later than the 1st of October.

6. On the signing of the protocol hostilities will be suspended and notice to that effect will be given as soon as possible by each government to the commanders of its military and naval forces.

Last Speech of Mr. Davis.

So far as is known, the last public speech made by Hon. Jefferson Davis before his demise was at Mississippi City, in the early spring of 1888. The speech had not been previously prepared by Mr. Davis, as he was called upon unexpectedly to address a political meeting in which rival factions had attempted to inject a great deal of bitterness. Coming from the man who was president of the Confederate States, the address of Mr. Davis is worthy of preservation in history. Here it is:

"Mr. Chairman and Fellow Citizens: Ah, pardon me, the laws of the United States no longer permit me to designate you as fellow citizens, but I am thankful that I may address you as my friends. I feel no regret that I stand before you this afternoon a man without a country, for my ambition lies buried in the grave of the Confederacy. There has been consigned not only my ambition, but the dogmas upon which that government was based. The faces I see before me are those of young men; had I not known this I would not have appeared before you. Men in whose hands the destinies of our southland lie, for love of her I break my silence to speak a few words of respectful admiration. The past is dead; let it bury its dead, its hopes and its aspirations; for you live the future—a future full of golden promise; a future of recompense for honorable promise; a future of expanding national glory, before which all the world shall stand amazed. Let me beseech you to lay aside all rancor, all bitter sectional feeling, and to take your places in the ranks of those who will bring about a consummation devoutly to be wished—a reunited country.

Reason for Rejoicing.

There is no country which has more reason than our own to celebrate the anniversary of the birthday of our country. Those 13 colonies, numbering not 3,000,000 people, are now 75,000,000, as free and enlightened as any upon God's footstool.

We little realize to-day the privations of Valley Forge, or the sufferings of our pilgrim fathers and mothers. The formation period of our government was critical. They had the same errors and differences to fight against that we have now. We can render no higher homage to the memory of our fathers than to baptize our souls afresh with patriotism. It is more than an attachment to the soil—it is devotion to a political ideal.—Exchange.

They Don't Tell the Truth.

A preacher came to a newspaper man this way: You editors dare not tell the truth—if you did you could not live, your newspaper would be a failure. The editor replied: You are right; the minister who will at all times and under all circumstances tell the whole truth about his members; dead or alive, will not occupy his pulpit more than one Sunday, and then he will find it necessary to leave town in a hurry. The press and pulpit go hand in hand with whitewash brushes and pleasant work, magnifying little virtues. The pulpit, pen and gravestone are the great Saintmark triumvirate.—Lee Journal.

Queer Pension Ruling.

It is alleged that a veteran of the war between the states who has volunteered to fight against Spain has been notified by this government that his pension has been canceled.

In explanation of this act the government official explains that if the veteran is able-bodied enough to fight Spaniards he is not entitled to further consideration as a pensioner.

This is very encouraging to soldiers of the late war who moved by patriotism, desire to aid the United States in conquering a foreign foe. As a reward for bravery and as an inducement to come to the aid of his country the old soldier is deprived of the pension given him for services in a former war.

If the contention of the government is correct, then the pension department stands convicted of incapacity or corruption, or both. Soldiers who receive pensions are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer county, W. Va. For sale by The F. W. Thirty-five years ago the fathers of the boys who were fighting side by side at Santiago on July 4, 1898, were fighting each other at Gettysburg. The men who charged under the gallant Pickett at Gettysburg, and the men who turned back that gallant Meade, were worthy fathers of brave American boys. The wheel of fate has made several revolutions since that awful carnage at Gettysburg, and today the sons of contending fathers are fighting side by side under the same flag. Overwork, either physical or mental, will produce weakness and loss of energy. Too many business or family cares, overwork in the harvest field, an excess of woman's work and worry, will produce months of misery. To prevent this the exhausted system should be reinforced immediately. Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is an appropriate remedy. Price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire's.

Are You Weak?
Weakness manifests itself in the loss of ambition and shyness. The blood is watery; the tissues are wasting—the door is being opened for disease. A bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters taken in time will restore your strength, soothe your nerves, make your blood rich and red. Do you more good than an expensive special course of medicine. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all druggists.

Every day strengthens the belief of eminent physicians that impure blood is the cause of the majority of our diseases. Twenty-five years ago this theory was used as a basis for the formula of Brown's Iron Bitters. The many cures effected by this famous old household remedy are sufficient to prove that the theory is correct. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all druggists.

GETTING READY

Every expectant mother has a trying ordeal to face. If she does not Nature is not given proper assistance.

Mother's Friend

is the best help you can use at this time. It is a liniment, and when regularly applied several months before baby comes, it makes the advent easy and nearly painless. It relieves and prevents "morning sickness," relaxes the overstrained muscles, relieves the distended feeling, shortens labor, makes recovery rapid and certain without any dangerous after-effects. Mother's Friend is good for only one purpose, viz.: To relieve motherhood of danger and pain.

The average daily death rate from yellow fever in Santiago has been reduced from 103 to 37.

The last fight occurred at Manzanillo. The town was bombarded just before peace was arranged.

The Spanish language must be taught in the Atlanta city schools. So says the board of education.

Madrid papers are displeased with the settlement. They think that the surrender cost too much territory.

The result of the school census of Georgia show an increase of 48,278 children since 1893. 21,649 whites and 26,629 colored.

A cloud burst occurred in Hawkins county, Ky., on the night of the 12th drowning 17 persons and destroying more than 100 farms.

The present war has been of short duration but Uncle Sam put a feather in his cap that will attract the attention of all nations.

It is estimated that the war with Spain lasting only 114 days, has cost $150,000,000 of which $88,000,000 has been paid out of the treasury.

It is believed now that the standing army will be reduced to 100,000 men and the other volunteers will be mustered out as soon as it is convenient to do so.

The populist of Dawson county, not knowing that W. H. Courtney had declined to make the race for the Senate from White, endorsed him at their meeting last week.

Roark, who killed Earnest Findley in Gainesville, has been found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. A motion for a new trial has been filed which will be heard September 1st.

Since W. H. Courtney declined making the race for the Senate in White the names of Rev. Mr. West, T. V. Cantrell, Rev. Millard Dowdy and Allison Smith are spoken of by the populists.

Bazboro was the scene of a battle on Saturday night between a sheriff's posse and about 85 desperate negro gamblers, resulting in five of the negroes being killed and several others wounded.

We are informed that a son of postmaster Stancel, up at our sister town Cleveland, got to handling the office money too carelessly and left out some days ago. He bought two bicycles and was having a good time.

The populists of Hall county have nominated E. F. Little and Henry Stevens for the legislature; clerk Superior court, Hyman Richardson; sheriff, G. F. DeLong; tax collector, G. F. Gould; receiver, John C. Edmondson; treasurer, W. S. Moon; surveyor, J. J. Camp. No one nominated for coroner.

By reference to the "announce ment" column in today's paper you will find that Col. J. W. H. Underwood is asking you for your support at the ballot box in October next for State Senator from this district. Since Mr. Courtney has declined to make the "run" on the populist side of the house the Colonel has the race all to himself now, but how long it will continue we cannot say for the names of several have already been spoken of, one of whom will doubtless be named later on. Mr. Courtney is, in our opinion, the strongest man that could have been run and his declination has weakened the chances for a populist candidate at this late date. Col. Underwood is a live, energetic, wide awake citizen, fully competent to discharge the duties of the responsible position that he is asking for, and a man that will keep an eye on the interests of his district, who, if successful will gain the admiration of populists, democrats and republicans. This is our honest opinion.

The Blessings of Peace.

The signing of the protocol and the issuance of the proclamation by the president declaring the existence of an armistice furnished good grounds upon which to base the hope that the war between the United States and Spain is practically at an end. The fact that Spain accepted the conditions proposed by the United States government, and later, agreed to the terms of the protocol dictated by the president, apparently indicates that Spain is resolved to accept peace on whatever basis it is offered by the United States. The official statement given out by the president outlines the terms of the protocol, in a general way reserving only such features as could not properly be made public at this time. We learned enough from the statement to warrant the conclusion that our government is fully satisfied that the negotiations will be brought to a happy and satisfactory termination.

The war is over. Our country will soon be once more at peace with all the world. Only a few preliminaries remain to be arranged and signed. Orders have been sent to both the American and Spanish Generals and commanders, instructing them to discontinue hostilities. Havana, Manila and San Juan, which have been the scenes of much suffering and distress, on account of the blockade, will now have relief. The blockaders are ordered lifted and vessels laden with provisions for the suffering people will quickly enter their harbors. Aside from putting an end to so much suffering and distress, the restoration of peace will act as a tonic on all the channels of trade, and our country will now go forward along the paths of prosperity with more rapid strides than ever before in its history.

The war with Spain has cost us a great deal of money and the loss of many precious lives, but it has shown the world that our government is the most powerful nation on earth. It has shown the world that the Americans, while naturally a peaceful nation, are masters of the art of war on land and sea, whenever they are forced to combat. It has taught other nations to honor and respect our government more than they have ever done before. We, ourselves, have learned many valuable lessons from the

The largest kitchen in the world is in that great Parisian store, the Bon Marche, which has 4,000 employees. The smallest kettle contains 100 quarts and the largest 500. Each of the fifty roasting pans is big enough for 500 outlets. When omelets are on the bill of fare 7,800 eggs are used at once. For cooking alone sixty cooks and 100 assistants are always at the ranges.

The Chicago Post says that according to reports received by railroad companies and business men the largest wheat crop within the history of the United States will be harvested within a fortnight. It says that the winter wheat yield or from 375,000,000 bushels to 400,000,000 will be increased to the extent of nearly 3,000,000 bushels in the spring region.

The Dalton Argus tells a good one about the preacher in that section who was telling about a great revival at a certain place where he had attended services. When asked about the number received into the church, he replied that they had received none but expelled fifteen. They had purified the church. Such revivals no doubt, would be a great blessing to many churches. Both doors should be kept open.

This is the greatest country on the face of the earth. One does not have to leave it for anything. We have all sorts of soil, climate and products. On the last day July there was snow in Nebraska, while in some other parts of the country the temperature was ranging well up in the nineties.—Marietta Journal.

In a western town the other day a revival preacher asked all those in his congregation to rise who had read a passage in the book of Ezekiah. About a dozen arose, some of them long-time church members. The evangelist said: "Why, God bless you, there's no such book in the Bible." There was a roseate flush o'erspread some cheeks that had been sorrow for years.—Ex.

Peoples Party Mass Meeting.

The people's party of Lumpkin county are hereby requested to meet in the court house at Dahlonega in mass meeting Saturday, Aug. 27th, 1898 at 12 o'clock M., to attend to some very important business. Every body who are friendly to reform in politics are cordially invited to meet with us.

FOR THE SENATE.
According to the system of rotation which obtains in the 2nd Senatorial District, the Senator to represent said district in the next General Assembly is to be selected from the county of White. Responding to the expressed wish of the people of said county, I announce myself a candidate for the Senate at the election to be held on the first Wednesday in October next.

J. W. H. UNDERWOOD.

FOR CLERK.
To the voters of Lumpkin county: I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Clerk of the Superior Court. I am very thankful to the people for their support in the past, and will, if re-elected, serve them faithfully and to the best of my ability. I respectfully solicit the aid of all.

Yours Truly,
J. F. SARGENT.

We are requested to announce the name of George W. Walker, Jr., as a candidate for tax collector of Lumpkin county who promises to discharge the duties of such office to the best of his ability and to the satisfaction of all if elected.

FOR TAX RECEIVER.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. A. Anderson for tax receiver of Lumpkin county at the ensuing election in October.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

To the voters of Lumpkin county: I take this method of announcing my candidacy for re-election to the office of county treasurer and hope to receive a hearty support from you. Thanking you for past favors and hoping for a continuance of the same, I am yours respectfully

E. F. JACKSON.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

We are authorized to announce the name of J. V. Harrison as a candidate to represent Lumpkin county in the House of the next legislature.

To the voters of Lumpkin county: Having been solicited by many friends, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the legislature, and if elected promise the people to make them a faithful and efficient member, asking the support of the voters.

S. M. GRIZZLE.

I respectfully announce myself a candidate to represent Lumpkin county in the next legislature of this state and if elected will do all I can for the county's best interests.

F. M. WILLIAMS.

I respectfully announce myself as a candidate to represent the county that gave me birth, in the next general assembly, and in my convictions, should I be honored, I pledge you that I will represent my county to the best of my ability and solicit your favorable consideration to my candidacy.

W. H. MCAFEE.

FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Surveyor of Lumpkin county and will appreciate any assistance which the voters will give me in the coming October election.

FOR SHERIFF.

To the voters of Lumpkin: I announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff of Lumpkin county and respectfully ask the voters to give me their support. If elected I will faithfully perform the duties of such office to the best of my ability.

Respectfully,
J. M. DAVIS.

To the Voters of Lumpkin County: At the solicitation of many friends throughout the county I have decided to make the race for Sheriff and respectfully solicit the support of all the voters.

Respectfully M. G. Hearn.

We are authorized to announce the name of James B. Anderson for sheriff of Lumpkin county at the ensuing October election who expects to be in the race until the polls are closed that evening.

To the voters of Lumpkin county: I hereby announce myself as a candidate for sheriff of Lumpkin county and earnestly ask your support at the ballot box at the October election, promising to make a faithful and efficient officer.

J. M. BERRY.

To the voters of Lumpkin county: At the solicitation of my friends I announce myself a candidate for sheriff at the October election and earnestly solicit your help at the polls.

Respectfully, S. D. GRINDLE.

To the voters of Lumpkin county: I hereby announce myself a candidate for sheriff of said county soliciting your liberal support at the polls. Hoping my candidacy will meet your approval and that I may receive your hearty support which will be long remembered and highly appreciated, promising if elected to discharge the duties of said office in an efficient and obliging manner.

will bring back to your hair the color of youth. It never fails. It is just as sure as that heat melts snow, or that water quenches fire.

It cleanses the scalp also and prevents the formation of dandruff. It feeds and nourishes the bulbs of the hair making them produce a luxuriant growth. It stops the hair from falling out and gives a fine soft finish to the hair as well.

We have a book on the Hair and Scalp which you may obtain free. If you do not obtain all the benefits that can be derived from the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, write the Doctor about it.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 19, 1898.

G. T. McGuire went out to Ellijay this week.

State Geologist Yeates is with us again this week.

Uncle Jimmie Wood, of Aurora, is at the point of death.

One of the candidates for sheriff will withdraw from the race next week.

Guy Reese, who is mining in White county, spent a few days at home this week.

Capt. Hall is receiving the necessary machinery for his grist mill over at the Chestate.

It is expected that several thousand acres of valuable mineral lands in Lumpkin county will change hands within the next few days.

B. Palmour, of Landrum, was up Wednesday making preparations to have his family move to Dahlonega so his children can attend college.

Rev. W. H. Cooper will attend Messy Creek camp meeting this week. Dr. Waddell will fill the pulpit at the Methodist church on Sunday.

An effort is being made to get a mail route established from Randa, in this county, to Stockhill, Fannin county, passing through Jones' Creek district.

Wm. Riley and Isaac Rucker, two highly respectable citizens of our county, left last Wednesday for Haysville, N. C. where they go to attend the Colored Union Baptist Association.

Merchant John Hynds is up from Gainesville this week. He came expressly for the purpose of selling goods and not to buy any chickens of the Rocky Mountain variety this time.

J. W. Woodward, president of the 52nd Georgia Re-union Association, has called a re-union of this regiment in Dahlonega September 9th, 1898. Richardson Bros brass band will furnish the music.

F. J. Williams returned to his home in Union county Wednesday last to begin canvassing the county for sheriff. He is right sharply in love with a lady of Dahlonega and enjoys coming over to our town at any time.

Ordinary Tate says that no pauper will receive any assistance from the county unless he is petitioned to that effect by tax payers, and not then until he investigates the case and is satisfied that the applicant is suffering. It would not have required much investigation to have found out that a man named Newberry, his wife and little child, who were in town last Wednesday were suffering. Both the man and wife were barefooted and they said that they had had nothing to eat but peaches since Friday. Our citizens should give this matter the proper attention.

Tuesday night while Marshal Bruce was out near the colored Baptist church he espied two men and a woman approaching him. He ordered them to hold up and the order was obeyed. The boys were soon recognized but the woman turned her head from him and just as he was making an effort to strike a match she lit out through the woods and the officer in close pursuit. Bruce ran across a stump and just as he struck the ground he made a grab at the woman's foot but she pulled loose, leaving him a portion of her garment which proved to be part of a pair of overalls. He was satisfied that no females wear overalls under a Mother Hubbard but he was anxious to know the man that was disguised in this way and at once proceeded as soon as he could rise. He had not gone far, however, until the party ran off of a high bank down into the water of the Hand canal eschelon. The marshal didn't follow any farther but stood and watched the fellow rise and crawl up the opposite bank and go down through McGee's field.

There are yet 150 visitors at Porter Springs.

James Lingerfelt and Miss Nancy Fortner, both of this county, will be wedded next Sunday by Squire Wehant.

The Sunday School celebration at Soule's Chapel will come off tomorrow and a good time is expected by the large number of people that will be present.

H. D. Gurley, one of the members of the town school trustees, left for Atlanta Tuesday afternoon to close a contract for the construction of our school building.

Rattlesnakes have become quite numerous since the stock law has gone into effect in the upper portion of the county. There is no hog now to kill them and they have full possession of the territory.

Joseph Rice, who has been spending several days in Dahlonega with relatives, leaves for his home in Milner today where he is doing a mercantile business with his father. He gained several pounds while here and will go back home much improved in health.

We will doubtless have a short court the next term as politics will cause business to be disposed of with a rush in order that all those interested may reach Atlanta and be with the forerunners of the legislature. The attorneys think that the term will not last more than three days.

While sheriff Brooksher was attending campmeeting last week some hard hearted sinner went around to his stable at night and relieved him of some harness. It is a great pity that a man can't go out long enough to serve the Lord without having something stolen from him.

John Davis, of Dahlonega, and Mr. Parshall, of Atlanta, left for the mountains last Tuesday on a fishing and hunting expedition. They carried along a four bushel box tied to the buggy which will be sufficiently large to hold their game and room enough for their snake bite medicine.

When a fellow calls a candidate now you may know that he wants a favor, but when you hear of a young man wearing a smile as broad as a fire shovel enquiring for the ordinary, it means a wedding. The latter occurred last Tuesday. So you may look out. Some man is going to loose his daughter.

There were nineteen candidates up at the camp ground last Sunday. Some of them had not heard the voice of a preacher before for months. It is a good thing something causes them to go out. Several of them will be elected to office and a few may get to heaven while others will be fortunate in reaching other place.

A beautiful tribute was paid to the memory of Col. M. G. Boyd last Sunday afternoon by the ministers and members of his church at the camp ground. The colored always felt much interest in the Dahlonega camp ground, never failing to be present at its annual meetings since it was founded, and his presence was greatly missed.

We are informed that an object appeared in the pulpit during the campmeeting last week and said that Dahlonega had a Looking Glass, meaning a newspaper like Atlanta used to have. It may be that he has been taking a peep and discovered that he resembles an ass more than he does a preacher is why he makes a noise frequently like one when he appears in public.

The Dahlonega camp ground tent holders are praising both the boys and the Lord because the former behaved so nicely up there during the meeting. Had some candidate carried up a few gallons of liquor and distributed it to all those that indulge the devil would not be wearing such a sad and disappointed look now. It's the liquor that does the mischief. Let a man fill up with mean liquor and he has no respect for man, woman or God.

Sheriff Brooksher has two regular boards.

Rolly Hightower; came up from Gainesville last Sunday and spent the day at the camp ground.

A couple of hack loads of Porter Springs visitors were down last Sunday looking at the mines.

A nice lot of elegant dress goods just received at J. F. Moore. Call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere.

Nearly every body went to the camp ground last Sunday from Dahlonega, causing the town to present a lonesome appearance.

Dr. N. F. Howard was taken suddenly ill up at the camp ground last Saturday night and suffered severely until relief could be had.

Those who attended the Sunday School celebration in the lower part of the county last Saturday reported it to be an enjoyable occasion.

F. J. Williams, the recently nominated candidate for Sheriff of Union county by the democrats, was in town a short while last Saturday.

Miss Bertie, daughter of W. W. Scott, was wedded Thursday of last week to Mr. B. Wehant, by Rev. W. T. Dowdy. It was a runaway match.

Rev. D. M. Edwards, of Dawsonville, who was pastor of the Dahlonega church at the time the Dahlonega camp ground was established seven years ago, was present at the meeting just closed.

Jess Adams, who went from this county and enlisted in the army a month or so ago, is back on a thirty days furlough. He has never been in a battle but the boys like to hear him tell of camp life.

John Hester, who was found in an illicit distillery some months ago in Union county with Harrison Fortner, was captured up at Porters in Lumpkin county by Deputy Marshal Grizzle last Sunday night. Hester, although being blind made his escape from two or three officers at that time and has been absent without Uncle Sam's consent until his capture that night. It does seem impossible for a blind man to make blockade liquor but Hester has a record of making the best that ever went down a man's "whistle." He has been before Judge Newman more than once and was always released through sympathy, but what will become of him this time we cannot tell.

Jim Rail visited the camp ground last Sunday under embarrassing circumstances, or that is he came away embarrassed. After procuring a horse at one place, cart at another and going to three other places, getting up the collar, traces, check lines, etc., collecting all together, hitched up and carried a young lady out. When the time of departing arrived the girl came back from the camp ground with Ben Whitmore and Jim had to make the trip alone after all of his trouble. It was first reported that the boys had a fight, but this is a mistake. No one was hurt except Rail had a severe pain in his left breast which is still giving him some trouble.

It is a pleasure for us to state that the ministers who have been conducting the meeting at the Dahlonega camp ground just closed, have had their efforts crowned with success. The attendance was large and orderly and nothing occurred during the whole time that will bear a prosecution in court save in one instance, which was the removal of a tap from the axle tree of a wagon. Not exceeding half a dozen men were noticed being under the influence of liquor, and they remained away off from the harbor and disturbed no one. A number of the ablest divines of the state were present who preached many interesting and instructive sermons making it beneficial to all those who heard them. There were two new additions to the church and a general revival in the cause of religion.

Letter heads printed nicely and put up in tablets at the Nugget office.

Mrs. Joseph Allen and little daughter Vivian, left Monday for Greenville, S. C., where they will spend several days in visiting relatives and friends.

Ben Moore came home from the Big Joe Mine Monday to nurse a nice case of jaundice, and join his two brothers, John and George, who are also wearing a yellowish appearance themselves.

Last Monday while Richard Dowdy and his son were out in the woods cutting timber about three miles from town they killed a couple of rattlers. One measuring four feet and the other three.

"Chockaw" Jim Davis' name was frequently found in some portions of Aurora district for sheriff until they found that he had hold of the wrong Jim. This Jim Davis was a brave old soldier and the boys down that way like men of that stripe.

The so called water tank at the jail should be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds of the sale given to some of those poor people who are suffering for something to eat. The tank will not answer for the purpose for which it was intended but would make a splendid chicken coop.

Sheriff Brooksher has quit politics and joined the church. Mr. Brooksher has had enough experience in politics to know that there is a slim chance for a politician to ever get to heaven unless he dies just after some big revival of religion, and then at an odd year when there is no election coming off.

Rev. W. H. Foster left Tuesday for his home in Swainsboro, called home by a letter from his wife to see a sick child. Mr. Foster made many friends while on his visit up here this time, renewed the acquaintance of many he had made on a former trip here, all of whom will be glad to see him again and hear some of his inspiring gospel sermons.

Our old friend Floyd Anderson had a close call last Saturday while attempting to ford the Yahoola creek in his buggy, while it was in a swollen condition. Soon after driving into the stream his mule, buggy and all were washed down against a foot log to which he caught and was soon safe. The mule and buggy were afterwards safely landed.

Last Sunday morning at 3 o'clock, a. m. Sanford Guerin was married to Miss L. Fortner, a daughter of Bud Fortner, by Rev. J. W. Phillips. It was an unusual time for a wedding but we suppose that they had both made up their minds that a single life could be a pleasure to them no longer, so they jumped into the matrimonial boat and will make the rest of the journey of life together.

Rev. D. M. Edwards of Dawsonville, stopped over a short while in Dahlonega last Monday while returning home from the camp ground. Mr. Edwards was located in Dahlonega some years ago and has many warm friends here. He is a minister who never fails to interest his congregation. He does not try to throw out fire, smoke and lava like some ministers do while preaching, but speaks good and kind to his congregation, gaining the love and respect of all.

Mr. Whorton of the Calhoun, spent a few hours in Dahlonega last Sunday. He is superintending his business himself and does not have much time to come up visiting and goes no where else unless duty calls him. He has his large dam about half done, not withstanding much of the weather has been unfavorable for such work. Much of the mill timbers have been discovered to be in a decayed condition, which necessitates new ones to take their places. All this is being looked after at the same time so as to be able to commence crushing ore as soon as the dam is completed.

James H. Worley has been quite sick for several days but is improving.

Merchant Whit Evans, of Wahoo, lost a fine mule one day last week.

Some ten or fifteen more guests have arrived at Porter Springs since our last issue.

Miss Emma Anderson has been confined to her room some time with a severe attack of fever.

If nothing happens to the growing crop corn will not be over 30 cents per bushel this fall.

Another contractor who made a bid for the school building, was up last week making an inspection.

Clerk Moore got sick during last week and was about the only candidate that didn't take in the camp meeting.

Whenever you feel tired and troubled and want rest and relief send in $1 and begin reading the Nugget.

Quite a number of students have already been writing to our citizens making arrangements for lodging and a large attendance of boys and girls may be expected to be on hand when the fall session of the college begins next month.

Our Collector failed to get Yahoola in his list of rounds last week but he says that he does not mean for the citizens to miss his appearance up there and requests us to state that he will visit their law ground on August 30th at 10 a. m.

It is quite likely that the few candidates in this county not contributing anything for printers ink will want those who support them to write their tickets. Such stingy men as this will make public spirited officers—over the left.

We must stop long enough this week to return thanks to our patrons who have kindly remembered the printer by sending in the cash and other article, just as good, without having to be even dunned. It shows that they appreciate the Nugget.

G. G. Evans, postmaster at Wahoo, stopped over on last Saturday a short time while on his way to the camp ground. He has been postmaster over there under both administration for a number of years and no one has had any room to grumble about his official acts. Why can't all postmasters attend to their business this way? It would make every thing so pleasant.

Last Sunday night when little "Chocky" Thomas hitched up and started home from the camp ground with a load of passengers some mischievous person had removed one of the taps from the spindle of the wagon and the wheel came off but fortunately no one was hurt. He was unable to find the tap and had to come home and leave his wagon until the next morning.

Some of the colored citizens say that they are afraid the most of the money voted for school purposes will be spent on the building for white children and if they get any their church will be taken away from them and converted into a school house. We don't know what arrangements will be made but will assure them that they will have a house if the white people do for the law has been fixed so that one school can't be established without both.

We understand that Mrs. Sallie Robinson went out to the school house over in Martin's Ford district the other morning away up in the day and found the scholars there without any teacher. They were playing, yelling and kissing. She picked up a brush and let in on hers like killing snakes and made them go home. Another patron has stopped his children from going, which has reduced the number of scholars at that school to less than fifteen. This goes to show that the board of education should appoint certain hours for teachers to open and close their schools, then parents would know what time to start them, as well as what time to expect them home.

Quite a crowd of young people picniced at Porter Springs Tuesday last.

Rev. Mr. Parks and his lady returned last Friday after an absence of several weeks.

E. E. Crisson, one of the owners of the Free Jim lot near the colored Baptist church, is engaged in cutting a 300 foot tunnel on this valuable mining property.

James Jackson, of White county, was bound over here last Friday for illicit distilling by Com. Baker, who made bond for his appearance at the next term of the District Court in Atlanta.

From what some of the attorneys say the proceedings in the case of Mrs. Grizzle for lunacy last week is illegal. Two of the jurors were opposed to the verdict and none but the foreman signed it.

Friends, remember that we are not publishing obituaries gratis. These notices do not interest but few and we have long since quit letting so much space be taken up for nothing. Say more about the good deeds of persons while they live. This will do them some good. When you wait until they are dead it is too late then.

It is not many weeks now until the election comes off, and if you don't announce pretty soon you will run your legs off and then not half of the people in the county will know that you are a candidate. All candidates for county officers can get into the Nugget band wagon for $3 in advance. Try it and see how she rides.

It is said that our tax receiver got things mixed up a little while making out his books by placing some of the names of the Dahlonega tax payers on the Hightower list, away up at the foot of the Blue Ridge. He had better be more careful for should he be sent to the legislature an appropriation intended for us might be given to the wrong county.

W. H. Reid announces his name for county treasurer this week. Mr. Reid held the office of tax collector of this county some years ago, which was filled to the satisfaction of all and should be successful in this race we have no doubts but what he would do the same thing again. He is a man that no body can help but like and will doubtless make a good race.

As stated heretofore the board of education of Lumpkin county has thought proper to appoint trustees for each public school in the county so as to have the watchful eye of some one on both the pupil and teacher all the time. This used to be the plan and it worked well. Col. Price, one of the members of the board, is out now performing this duty. Where he cannot get suitable men he appoints ladies.

We are often advised how to run a newspaper, which, of course, is listened to with much interest. The other day a certain fellow sent us word what course the Nugget ought to pursue in order to build up the morals of the entire county. But we happened to know that he had been making love to a colored damsel and had her to leave town. So we will not run the Nugget his way, but will continue to give the unvarnished news.

Our old friend, E. Carroll, had a son, W. A. Carroll, to leave for the west some years ago. Soon after the present war broke out he was examining the list of the dead and wounded after a battle when his eyes fell upon the name Carroll, no initials, that had lost his life at Santiago. The old man was stricken with grief. He thought it was his son, for he could not hear from him. But last Friday when calling for his mail postmaster Brittain handed him a letter and a package, the old man's grief was turned into joy when he found it to be from his boy who had sent him three or four pounds of excellent tobacco. The son had not been in the war but was working in the mines at Centerville, Idaho.

A Technicality of Law.

One of our exchanges reports the following as a curiosity of law: "A young man purchased 2,000 extra fine cigars, and had them insured for their value, smoked them up and demanded the insurance, claiming that they had been destroyed by fire. The case was taken to the court and the judge decided in favor of the young man. The insurance company then had the young man arrested for setting fire to his own property, and the same judge ordered that he pay a fine and go to jail for three months."

Pimples, blotches, yellow skin, dark rings about the eyes, and their existence to a diseased liver and bad digestion. To remove these disgusting evidences of internal disorder the liver should receive immediate attention. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidneys Balm is a reliable remedy for liver troubles and derangements in the kidneys. Its use will restore those organs to the healthy, active and regular performance of their functions. When this is accomplished the eye will become bright and sparkling, the skin fair and smooth, and the complexion clear. Price $1.00 a bottle. At Moore & McGuire's.

The indications that the taxable values in Georgia will show a decline of at least $3,000,000 this year. Few people will believe that there has been an actual decrease in the value of property in Georgia to the large amount named, within the past twelve months. The decrease report is chiefly due to the defective method of assessing taxes in the rural counties in Georgia. If every county in the state had a board of assessors, similar to those in the cities, we believe the values would show an increase, rather than a decrease. —Enquirer Sun.

Valuable to Women.

Especially valuable to women is Brown's Iron Bitters. Headache, nervousness, disappears, strength takes the place of weakness, and the glow of health readily comes to the pallid cheek when this wonderful remedy is taken. For sickly children overworked men and women, no home should be without this famous remedy. Brown's Iron Bitters is sold by all dealers.

The editor of the Alabama Herald soliloquizes thus: "The prospects for prosperity were never better in this country than at present. Crop prospects are better than for years; mills, factories and workshops are running on full time, and railroads are tested to their utmost capacity."

A NEW TRIUMPH.

The Dreaded Consumption Can Be Cured.

T. A. Slocum, the Great Chemist and Scientist, Will Send to Sufferers, Three Free Bottles of His Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy to the afflicted, than the generous offer of the honored and distinguished chemist, T. A. Slocum, M. C. of New York City.

He has discovered a reliable and absolute cure for consumption, and all bronchial, throat, lung and chest disease, catarrhal affections, general decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions of wasting away, and to make this great merit known, will send three free bottles of his newly discovered remedies to any afflicted reader of the NUGGET.

Already his "new" scientific system of medicine has permanently cured thousands of apparently hopeless cases.

The Doctor considers it not only his professional, but his religious duty—a duty to which he owes to suffering humanity—to donate his infallible cure.

He has proved the "dreaded consumption" to be a curable disease beyond a doubt, in any climate, and has on file in his American and European laboratories thousands of "heartfelt testimonials of gratitude" from those benefited and cured, in all parts of the world.

Catarrhal and pulmonary troubles lead to consumption, and consumption, uninterrupted, means speedy and certain death. Don't delay until it is too late. Simply write T. A. Slocum, M. C., 48 Pine Street, New York, giving express and postoffice address, and the free medicine will be promptly sent. Please tell the Doctor you saw his offer in the NUGGET. Jan. 28.

CONDITION OF THE CROPS.

Fresh Growth and Vigor Taken On Since Recent Heavy Rains. For the past two or three weeks rains have been quite general over the state, and in consequence the growing crops have taken on fresh growth and vigor.

COTTON. In most of the counties there has been too much rain for this crop, and unless there is very greatly more sunshine and less moistening the damage will be very serious. Complaints are coming in from various points of rust, black rot, blight, shedding, etc., and all these are aggravated by excessive rain, particularly on the light lands of the state. The fields are generally too wet to plow, and grass is getting troublesome in some localities. The crop is just at its critical stage, and the next few weeks will decide as to the result. At this date I think the outlook poor for a full crop in Georgia. The weather, with occasional moderate rains, is what the plant needs now, but in place of these we are having cloudy weather with heavy rains.

CORN. This crop has improved wonderfully in the past few weeks, and the state is now almost free of a plentiful supply of this, our most valuable grain crop. The very early corn in South and Middle Georgia has been seriously injured by the weather of May and June, and yet in many cases this corn, with a dwarfed stalk, and looking as though it would make nothing, has been revived, has put out bold shoots and will make three-fourths of a good crop. The very late corn is in a small proportion of the crop, and the rest is making all that the land and cultivation given it renders possible. Some reports state that certain counties will make double the crop made last year, and all report excellent prospects. A large crop is now assured in South and Middle Georgia, and two more weeks will make the crop safe in North Georgia. There has been some injury to bottom lands from excess of moisture and inability on that account to work them, but in the aggregate this does not amount to much.

FRUIT. The watermelon crop, most of which has been shipped, has proved rather disappointing. The crop has been abundant and the shipments probably an average in the number of melons, but the melons have, as a rule, been small, and the prices therefore low, leaving but little profit for the grower. Some fanatics are now going north, to which the growers should realize fair profits.

The peach crop of the state is the largest ever grown within her borders, and the fruit never was so free of worms and other insects and diseases. The mistake made by most of the growers was in leaving too much fruit on the trees, and this with want of rain. The fruit caused the peaches to be smaller than usual. The growers have in some cases not with much loss by inability to obtain crates, the crate manufacturers being unable to supply the enormous demand. The growers should be prepared for this and like emergencies by having at hand drying and canning plants, and when it is either impossible or unprofitable to ship their fruit they could then can or dry it. There should be no waste of a product for which the demand is so great.

Grapes are fine and abundant all over the state and are being largely shipped to the northern markets. The year crop is short, owing chiefly to blight, for which there has as yet been found no remedy. Georgia apples will be scarce, the crop being very poor in most of the apple counties, only here and there a fair crop being found.

POTATOES, CANE, PEAS, ETC. These minor crops, as they are called, (though of great importance and service to the farmers) are all doing well, how that the rains have started them to growing, and the prospect is excellent for an abundant yield of each of them. The area sown in peas is large, and it is evident that Georgia farmers have learned that there is no cheaper or better method for keeping up the fertility of their lands than by sowing annually in every year every available acre on their farms. Pastures have greatly improved in the past few weeks and are now very fine. Gardens doing well also, as regards the later vegetables.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled. The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creeping sensation that existed in my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore. To overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an insupportable 'raw' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Over it fastened upon a notion, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a very deadly and painful stage. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half, without any particular benefit, when I saw an advertisement in the Boston Herald of Nov. 1, 1897, procured a bottle and began using it. Marvellous as it may seem, but a few days had passed, before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 140. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been so successful in their cases as to induce—James Kane, La Rue, O. The Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Miles Medicine Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00. THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 23 1898.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.

Spain wants pay for her losses of all public works in Porto Rico and Cuba.

The Third United States Georgia volunteers were ordered to Porto Rico on the 19th.

Meal sold at $1 per pound at Santiago at the close of the war, and coal $3 per bag.

All the candidates will likely be here tomorrow to hear the speaking and talk politics.

Already 57 American war yachts have been ordered to redeploy at Fort Monroe.

John B. Redwine, the Atlanta money lender has failed to the tune of about $50,000.

Wesley Pierce, of Atlanta, was killed by his chum, Dick Morris, for 40 cents, the other day.

Some alarm has been caused by the yellow fever at Key West and all soldiers have been ordered away from there.

Twenty Spanish prisoners at McPherson have been sent to Portsmouth, N. H., under a guard of 35 men, where they will join their friends.

A policeman arrested Wm. Shelton, of this section, in Atlanta the other day, who had thirty gallons of liquor under a load of fodder in a wagon yard.

A negro was hanged and riddled with bullets by a mob in Sumter county the other day for horribly murdering Mrs. Mary McGarrath, an aged lady, and her son.

The first gun of the state democrat campaign was fired last Saturday at Milledgeville, by speeches from Col. Candler and Hon. Fleming G. DuBignon.

The populist of White county will meet tomorrow, so we understand, and put out a candidate for the Senate against Col. Underwood, the democratic nominee.

Fulton county's new jail is nearly completed. It was to have been completed January 1st. The contractors pay a forfeit of $15 every day since that time until it is completed.

Great numbers of rebels are being slaughtered every day in southern China. When any are taken prisoners they are executed between ten and twenty a day until all are killed.

All the candidates for county treasurer of Lumpkin are certainly in a bad fix. One has a cancer on his lip, another has a sore leg, the third one is aged and a cripple and the fourth is old and weak.

The natives at Porto Rico are killing the Spaniards and burning much of their property. Gen. Miles and his officers have all they can do to control the Islanders, who are thirsty for Spanish blood.

We understand that it is the intention of the democrats to center upon one of the three candidates for the legislature in Lumpkin county of their faith and order so as to defeat the republican, but who the lucky man will be we do not know.

The returns from 131 counties have been received at the comptroller's office and show a decrease of $4,734,464. Of these counties 79 show a decrease of $6,241,576, while 42 show an increase of $1,507,111. The indications are that the decrease, when the other counties are heard from, will amount to several million dollars greater than last year.

The south has been praised by President McKinley. He has expressed gratification on account of the relations which all sections of the country had maintained toward the war. There had been no section, he declared, and no party and he hoped that all questions that would come up as the result of the war would be settled without any party spirit. Mr. McKinley says the South did its part in the war.

Death of Mrs. O. C. Townsend. Oldest Resident of the County.

Mrs. Orphy C. Townsend, the oldest resident of Lumpkin county, died last Friday morning a short time after eating breakfast, while sitting in a rocking chair. She seemed to be in her usual health but soon after taking her seat she looked up and said, "I am gone!" and passed away apparently without any pain. The deceased is a grand mother of the writer and a wife of William Townsend who never lived to return home after assisting in carrying off the Indians from this country many years ago. But by her industrious habit she succeeded in raising all four of her children but one. She came to this section from South Carolina when the place where Dahlonega is now located, was in the woods, and nothing to mark its location except the miners camps, and resided in the county ever since then up to the time of her death. Grand Ma has often told us about seeing the first person buried in the Dahlonega cemetery but it has been so long ago she could not exactly locate the spot. Since then hundreds of persons have been numbered among this city of the dead, while she was permitted to live longer than any of the oldest of the number perhaps, except one. She had nine brothers and sisters and out lived them all except one—Mrs. Milly Patton, who yet resides in this county. And her children have all passed away except her youngest daughter, Mrs. Josiah White, who lives twelve miles above Dahlonega, who too has many children and grand children. She belonged to no church but she lost no time in reading the Bible the day before she died except while at her meals. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Parks and her remains were interred by the side of one of her daughters in the Dahlonega cemetery Saturday afternoon.

George Underwood, col., formerly of Cleveland, but now of Marietta, was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 at the latter place the other day for car breaking, or go to the chain gang twelve months.

Sumter county went dry last week by a good majority. It is now in the temperance column for the first time in 60 years.

There are 800 cases of yellow fever in the camp at Wikoff, Ind. Eighty natives at Porto Rico were butchered by the Spanish troops the other day. The republicans of Idaho have nominated A. B. Moss, of Canyon City for Governor. A party of Athens gentlemen are now applying for a charter to develop Rabun county. Bro. Craig, of the Eagle, calls the decrease in the taxable property of the state a "Sinking of Honesty."

The Second Georgia volunteers, to which several of the Dahlonega boys belong, has been moved from Tampa to Huntville, Ala. W. A. White, the democratic nominee for Clerk Superior Court of White county, is a former student of the N. G. A. College. The great horse swappers convention will meet in Gainesville next time, beginning Oct. 11th and continuing three days. The convention just closed at Winder was attended by 2000 people. Col. Ray's immunes have arrived safely in Cuba. Eight Spanish troops left with 15,000 troops to Spain. The outrages which have been committed in Santiago by the Second and Fifth volunteer regiments of American troops surpass description. The two regiments appeared to be without control or discipline and broke ranks shortly after reaching the city, going through houses, committing robbery, murder, rape and arson.

A special from Washington says the available cash balance in the treasury today, including the gold reserve, was $278,771,011.41. The success of the war revenue law is very satisfactory and with some modifications, which will be made at the next session of congress, it is likely to stand on the statute books for some time to come. It is believed that this source of income will be maintained for the purpose of building up the navy, for which elaborate plans will be submitted to congress. The Cherokee Advance has this to say about our college and its president. "Prof. J. S. President of the North Georgia Agricultural College at Dahlonega, was in Canton last week in the interest of this school. Prof. Stewart is personally a refined, christian gentleman and fine educator, and the N. G. A. College is one of the best institutions of learning in the state, being a branch of the state University and sustained by the state that the young men and women of Georgia may obtain a college education at the lowest possible cost. Several attended this college from Cherokee last year and the years previous but we trust the matriculations from Cherokee this year and hereafter may be even greater than ever before. We commend the school and its faculty most heartily."

The Falling Leaves

Give Warning of Winter

So the falling of the hair tells of the approach of age and declining power.

No matter how barren the tree nor how leafless it may seem, you confidently expect leaves again. And why?

Because there is life at the roots.

No you need not worry about the falling of your hair, the threatened departure of youth and beauty. And why?

Because if there is a spark of life remaining in the roots of the hair.

will arouse it into healthy activity. The hair ceases to come out; it begins to grow; and the glory of your youth is restored to you.

We have a book on the Hair and its Diseases. It is free.

The Best Advice Free.

Send to the nearest drug store for a booklet on the hair, and you will receive it free. There is no one who can give you such good advice as the one who has been so long in the hair business. It is free. Address: Dr. C. C. Allen, Lowell, Mass.

SOME persons say it is natural for them to lose flesh during summer. But losing flesh is losing ground. Can you afford to approach another winter in this weakened condition?

Coughs and colds, weak throats and lungs, come quickest to those who are thin in flesh, to those easily chilled, to those who have poor circulation and feeble digestion.

Scott's Emulsion

of cod liver oil with hypophosphites does just as much good in summer as in winter. It makes flesh in August as well as April. You certainly need as strong nerves in July as in January. And your weak throat and lungs should be healed and strengthened without delay.

The two regiments appeared to be without control or discipline and broke ranks shortly after reaching the city, going through houses, committing robbery, murder, rape and arson.

A special from Washington says the available cash balance in the treasury today, including the gold reserve, was $278,771,011.41. The success of the war revenue law is very satisfactory and with some modifications, which will be made at the next session of congress, it is likely to stand on the statute books for some time to come. It is believed that this source of income will be maintained for the purpose of building up the navy, for which elaborate plans will be submitted to congress. The Cherokee Advance has this to say about our college and its president. "Prof. J. S. President of the North Georgia Agricultural College at Dahlonega, was in Canton last week in the interest of this school. Prof. Stewart is personally a refined, christian gentleman and fine educator, and the N. G. A. College is one of the best institutions of learning in the state, being a branch of the state University and sustained by the state that the young men and women of Georgia may obtain a college education at the lowest possible cost. Several attended this college from Cherokee last year and the years previous but we trust the matriculations from Cherokee this year and hereafter may be even greater than ever before. We commend the school and its faculty most heartily."

W. L. Peek, who made the race some years ago on the populist ticket, speaks in Dahlonega tomorrow.

The appropriation for the session of congress has been completed which is $931,291,615, being an increase of $2,635,608.

Private James H. Taylor, a Georgia soldier of Co. D, who killed Corporal Millledge at Camp Dyer, will be courtmartialled and shot.

Harrison & Hunt, of Gainesville, have just completed a monument for Thomas Jackson, who lived in Hall county to the ripe old age of 111.

The state tax was levied Monday and is 6.21 mills against 5.21 last year, made necessary by the addition of $400,000 yearly to state school fund.

Ladies, don't continue borrowing this, your neighbors paper ask your brother or father to subscribe for it. They are more able to pay for it than the man that this one belongs to.

F. V. Moore, who has a list of all the soldiers who went from Dahlonega to fight for the Confederacy, has given us the following interesting information concerning the three companies that went from Lumpkin county: The Dixie Rangers numbered 113, 9 of whom are yet living. Boyd Guards, 81, 19 yet living. Mountain Rangers, 75, 14 yet living. Total going from Lumpkin in the three companies 261. The above list was the way they were mustered out. You can add at least 100 recruits to the three companies making an aggregate of 369 men, and now only 35 are accounted for.

We have been asked several times why the council allowed Capt. Hall to build another six or eight foot wall out on the public square at the end of the old Besser Hotel. In reply we will state that the Captain first got permission from the council which is now on record. The Inferior Court many years ago granted citizens the right to build porches on the public square provided they would keep them open for the passage of people but the law has not been complied with as several have been encroaching upon the streets even without permission, and it will be a hard matter to keep it from continuing as one citizen has, or ought to have, as much right to use the public ground as others. And now since decreasing the size of the square we learn that they will soon commence blasting out the ledge of rock on the side of the street down below Col. Bakers, where the passage of people won't average more than six or eight a day, and make the already thirty foot street forty feet wide. Besides this the council has paid a surveyor a dollar to locate the line and see that Capt. Hall doesn't get his fence over the line on the back street in rear of the Besser.

NUMBER 35.

Newsy Paragraphs Of State Interest

Columbus.—The striking operatives at the Swift Spinning mills returned to work following the general agreement reached between mill employees and managers. The Swift Spinning mills was the only textile establishment in which a strike occurred.

Macon.—The indications are that plans for the enlargement and conversion of Camp Wheeler into a regular cantonment will be announced soon. An intimation of this was given recently when a committee from the Macon chamber of commerce returned from Washington, where they conferred with government officials as to the future of Camp Wheeler.

Metter.—The farmers of Candler county met here and organized a branch office of the federal reserve loan bank of Atlanta. George L. Williams, cashier of the Citizens' bank of Metter, was elected secretary of the matters pertaining to the securing of United States funds for the farmers. Several thousand dollars was applied for for loans from the government.

Americus.—L. G. Council, receiver of the Bank of Southwest Georgia, which failed here two years ago, will shortly distribute a dividend of twelve and a half per cent to depositors and creditors of the defunct institution. The dividend is made possible by reason of a decree just entered by Judge Z. A. Littlejohn in Sumpter superior court, and will make a total of forty-two and a half per cent paid to the creditors by the receiver.

Atlanta.—Labor Day will be celebrated in Atlanta Monday, September 2. This was definitely decided at a meeting of the labor organizations and committees have been appointed to arrange the various details. The parade will be formed in five divisions, the first of which will be composed of the building trades; the second, railroad organizations; the third, printing trades; the fourth, miscellaneous trades; the fifth, the metal trades.

Atlanta.—City council has adopted the report of the committee appointed to take action with reference to requested increases in electric light and power, gas and street railway rates in Atlanta, which recommended that prior to September 1 legal proceedings should be taken to prevent increases in gas, light and power rates, and that in the event that the Georgia Railway and Power company should undertake legal proceedings to compel the railroad commission of Georgia to assume jurisdiction over street railway fares in Atlanta, the city's interests will be protected.

Atlanta.—The state executive committee of the volunteer medical reserve corps of the national council met here to work out plans for the movement of every doctor in the state to work in the first of the work in the state.

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 1

SOME LAWS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

LESSON TEXTS—Luke 8:30-38; 21:1-4.
GOLDEN TEXT—Remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive.—Acts 20: 35.

DEVOTIONAL READING—II Corinthians 9:5-15.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL FOR TEACHERS—Luke 16:9; Romans 12:3; II
Corinthians 9:6-15; Hebrews 13:16; Ezra 1:
2-4; I Chronicles 29:1-5.

The principles of ethics which shall prevail in the earth when Jesus Christ shall be king are entirely different from those of the world. The worldly spirit always inquires as to what gain will accrue from an action or service. Its policy is doing good for the sake of getting good. Those who have been made partakers of the divine nature, who are really subjects of the kingdom, do good because they have the nature and spirit of God, not because they expect something in return.

I. Give to Every Man That Asketh of Thee (v. 30).

This does not mean that any request that may be made by the idle, greedy and selfish should be granted. Only evil would result from such indiscriminate and unregulated giving. Such benevolence would foster idleness and selfishness. Oftentimes the worst thing you can do for a man is to give him money. The drunkard will only spend it for more drink; the gambler will continue his dissipation. The meaning then is, give to the one asking the thing which he needs. The man in poverty needs to be given a way to earn his living, rather than to be given money without the necessity of labor. There is that in the human heart which refuses charity, and cries out for a means to honestly gain a livelihood.

II. Of Him That Taketh Away Thy Goods, Ask Them Not Again (v. 30).

"Ask" here means demand. It doubtless forbids the forcible demanding of the return of that which has been taken from one.

III. Do to Other Men as You Would That They Should Do Unto You (vv. 31-34).

This ethic puts life's activities on the highest possible ground. He does not say, refrain from doing that which you would not like to be done to you, as even Confucius taught; but to positively make the rule of your life the doing to others as you would wish them to do unto you. Loving those who love us, doing good to those who do good to us, and lending to those from whom we hope to receive, is just what all the sinners of the world are doing. The child of the kingdom of God is to be different.

IV. Love Your Enemies (v. 35).

It is natural to the human mind to love one's enemy. To love one's enemy is to sincerely love one's enemy.

BELL STRONG FOR RURAL MAIL SERVICE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3, 18.
Editor, Courier,
Cleveland, Ga.

It is seldom I take part in a newspaper controversy, but the article this week from John E. Kenimer, of Leaf, for whom I have the highest regard, should be answered.

Mr. Kenimer opposes the appropriation for postal employees and for rural carriers especially. He reasons from the wrong standpoint, as he says "that every dollar spent should represent a dollar's worth in return." If Congress legislated on this principle there would be no rural free delivery of mail at all, and Mr. Kenimer, with others who now get their mail from Leaf, would be driving to Cleveland for their mail, as they did years ago, because the rural mail service has never been a paying proposition, but has been run at a loss to the government.

The service is the greatest blessing the people in the country have received from their government in over one hundred years. I am in favor of keeping the service up to the very highest standard so that we may not go back to the old time stage route service, as has been done by the department in the recent past. I am in support of

FOR SEN

To the voters of Gilmer and Pickens counties: I take this method of announcing my self as a candidate for the Senate. I hope to be able to see a lot of the voters here now and the election. I give this little short notice in the Times-Courier and will give other ad later soliciting your support.

Announcement

FOR CONGRESS

To the People of the Ninth District:

I announce as a candidate for Congress, subject to the primary September 11th. The people are entitled to the experience I have as a result of service. I may not be able to make a personal campaign, and, if it interferes with my duties, I will not. With the work in hand, due to war conditions, no member has any time to lose. The seat of government is here. Much of public business is here. The war goes on. Its time limit is beyond human calculation. Its requirements are heavy, and they grow. Change in the situation are swift. The battle front is in motion. American forces are "Over there," and the number increases. If I can aid them I will do it. My record in Congress is an open book. Your interest is mine, and I trust I may receive the largest vote in the history of our district, and to you I pledge my best endeavors.

Sincerely yours,
Thos. M. Bell.

Announcement

FOR CONGRESS

To the people of the Ninth Congressional District of Georgia:

I respectfully announce that I am a candidate for Congress from the Ninth District of Georgia, subject to the Democratic Primary September 11th, 1918.

I was born and reared within the bounds of your district and have spent my life in your midst and your welfare is of the greatest concern to me. To represent you in the National house is, indeed, an honor. At this time there are grave duties and responsibilities to your congress.

HON. R. P. JACKSON CORDIALLY REQUESTS YOUR SUPPORT IN HIS RACE FOR CONGRESS

TO THE VOTERS OF THE NINTH CON-GRESSIONAL DISTRICT:

When I announced my candidacy for Congress from this district I did so with no other purpose in view than to serve you well and faithfully in the National House of Representatives.

I was born and reared in an humble home in the hills of White County, within the bounds of your district, where I was rocked in the cradle by a sweet mother who, like your mother, had a desire deep down in her soul to make a useful man out of her boy.

With a keen feeling of her fond hopes for me I have endeavored to be of some service to my country and my friends, and have an ambition to represent you in congress, the next highest law-making body in the gift of the people.

I have not a word or hard feeling of any kind toward our present Congressman, Mr. Bell. I have been one of his strong friends and supporters in the past, but feel, as thousands of others in the district, that he has held the office long enough, and that it would be showing no unfriendly feeling toward him for the people to retire him and let some one else hold the office for awhile. In other words, I do not think it fair for one man to hold office always when there are other good men capable of taking his place.

If you will give me your support and influence in this race, I will deeply appreciate it, and will endeavor to so fill the office that you will never have cause to regret the choice you have made, and at the end of my third term will step down and out and let some other good man step in and take over the affairs of government, to the end that fairness will reign in our land and every good man, so far as possible, may have the opportunity of serving his people in Congress from the Ninth District.

Young Son of Famous Member of "Vigilantes" Frankly Considered His Father a Slacker.

Ellis Parker Butler, the author, who lives at Flushing, and is devoting his energy to aiding in the successful prosecution of the war, does not bear an enviable reputation for patriotism in his own household. Mr. Butler has been writing for the Thrift and War stamps campaign.

Mr. Butler is the father of twin sons of tender age. Several nights ago he returned home tired after a day's work for the Red Cross and took his seat at the head of the table. After they had finished their dinner, the twins produced their Thrift stamps and started to count them.

"Dad, look at all the stamps I have," said one of the youngsters. "I have 239. Look at brother's pile; he has more than I."

Mr. Butler nodded approvingly to Mrs. Butler and they both smiled. There was silence for a minute, then one of the twins looked up and exclaimed: "Dad, why don't you do something patriotic?"

YOU know the real human doctors right around in your neighborhood: the doctors made of flesh and blood just like you; the doctors with souls and hearts; those men who are responding to your call in the dead of night as readily as in the broad daylight; they are ready to tell you the good that Fletcher's Castoria has done, is doing and will do, from their experience and their love for children.

Fletcher's Castoria is nothing new. We are not asking you to try an experiment. We just want to impress upon you the importance of buying Fletcher's.

"Greens ran a little grocery in South Eleventh street. He was tremendously proud of it, though it was in reality a wretched hole. He used to stride up and down in front of it all day with his nose in the air and his chest puffed out."

"An humble hodgecarrier passing Greens one morning said affably:

"How are you, Mr. Greens? It looks as if we'd have some rain, don't it?"

"We'd?" snorted Greens. "We'd? Since when, young man, have you and I been partners?"

HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES IF YOUR BACK ACHES

Do you feel tired and "worn-out"? Are you nervous and irritable? Don't sleep well at night? Have a "dragged out," unrested feeling when you get up in the morning? Dizzy spells? Bilious? Bad taste in the mouth, backache, pain or soreness in the loins, and abdomen? Severe distress when urinating, bloody, cloudy urine or sediment? All these indicate gravel or stone in the bladder, or that the poisonous microbes, which are always in your system, have attacked your kidneys.

You should use GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules immediately. The oil soaks gently into the walls and lining of the kidneys, and the little poisonous animal germs, which are causing the inflammation, are immediately attacked and chased out of your system without inconvenience or pain.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, GA., AUG. 26, 1898.

Miss May Cartledge has returned from her visit.

Mrs. Hall, mother of Capt. Hall has returned from her visit.

Rev. Hubert Smith and lady returned to LaGrange Friday.

Some ten or twelve visitors were down from Porter last Friday.

Jerry Stover killed a rattler this week near Siloam church that weighed ten pounds.

Mrs. C. H. Hart leaves for her old home in Ohio next week. Her husband will join her later on.

G. McGuire and his family left last Saturday for a trip down into Dawson and Cherokee counties to visit relatives.

Latter part of last week the water in the Chestate river rose and injured the right wing of the Calhoun dam.

Samuel Bell, of Jefferson, Ga., who is summering at Porter, enjoyed a horseback ride down to our city last Friday.

Turner Quillian and ex-shepherd Duckett, of Hall county, were here Wednesday and are now out in the mountains on a big fox chase.

Two oldest citizens now living in the county registered this week—both being 87. G. Hughes and Henry Castleberry. The latter being colored.

W. G. Spencer, the contractor, has completed the kitchen and dining room of the college dormitory which has been received and the building is now complete.

Emet Letson, of Norcross, and George W. Duncan, of Macon, were registered at the Hall House yesterday. The latter gentleman owns a good deal of real estate in this county.

Longstreet, the colored contractor for the upper Gainesville mill line is nearly always on time, rain or shine. He doesn't take time to take on passengers, but moves right a head.

John Stone, of Sparta, has been awarded the Dahlonega public school building for the sum of $1,674. The required bond of $500 has been given and work will begin at once.

It was reported last week that G. H. McGuire, the jeweler, was going to pull up stakes and leave Dahlonega. But we are glad to learn that this useful gentleman has decided to remain with us.

The Hall House changes hands within the next few days. The present proprietor, Dr. Waddell, will return to Marietta, and it is reported that Senator Castleberry will take charge of the Hall House and that Prof. J. S. Stewart will move to the Besser House.

Judge Murray was here last week looking after his mining interests. Each and every one of our citizens are always glad to see the Judge. He greets the high, the low, the rich and the poor all alike with a pleasant smile, and has been a great help to the poor people of this country.

We struck up with a certain fellow the other day who we asked to subscribe for the NUGGET. Said he wouldn't take it then but maybe would later on. Before he left us, however, he requested us to assist him in a matter through its columns that would be worth several hundred dollars to him but nothing to us. The Golden Rule didn't cross his mind the first time.

Uncle Tilmon Davis, father of Mrs. Grizzle, who was recently tried for lunacy, carried the lady to the asylum last Friday. We understood that F. V. Moore, a relative, was going to proceed in a legal manner and prevent her from going until the matter could be brought before Judge Kinsey, but the notice of her acceptance seemed to have been kept a secret and they were gone with her before he was aware of it.

Joseph Ferguson and wife were up from the Big Joe first of the week.

Mr. Drake, who is interested in the Crescent gold mine, is expected here today.

Sheriff Brookshire has been making some necessary improvements on his building occupied by M. J. Williams.

There is a lot of clever men in the Crescent gold mine, but when the election comes off yote for sober men and we will have good officers.

One of our patrons at Half Way remarked in the presence of a crowd the other day that he had rather do without his bread than to be without the NUGGET.

Lost.—1 brindle colored milch cow, with one horn short. Formerly owned by Mr. Crandall. Finder will return to W. M. Smith, Dahlonega, and receive reward.

The cemetery is now receiving its annual dressing. All the weeds and bushes are being destroyed, which adds much to the appearance of this much dreaded place.

Frank Reese was stung on the top of the head last Monday by a bumble bee, which caused him to have to go to Dr. Jones for relief. It was very painful and made him sick for awhile.

Gilbert Walden was billed to entertain the citizens at the court house Wednesday night but refused to pay the city tax of $5.00, and the "Southern Dialect Stories," etc., were not given.

Mrs. Lagare, wife of Prof. Lagare, who was one of the professors in the N. G. A. College some seven or eight years ago, now deceased, is in Dahlonega, the guest of Prof. Stewart and lady.

Work is moving right along at the Crescent Gold Mine. A large reservoir is being dug for the purpose of operating right. The tunnel work is still going on with satisfactory results. The veins are showing up well.

Prof. Yeates, the State Geologist is still in Dahlonega. He has had Capt. W. J. Worley getting up abstracts from the Clerks office so as to enable the Professor to give some historical facts concerning the mining industry of Lumpkin county.

College will soon open, the boys will be here in large numbers, and then the girls and ladies generally will give the churches a better attendance, not expressly for the good of the meetings, but to primp up in their best rigging and exhibit their looks.

J. H. Jenkins has petitioned the ordinary to cause a new road to be opened out up the Chestate river beginning at Bearden's bridge and intersect with the Cleveland road at Dock Andersons. This will make it much nearer from Porter Springs to Gainesville.

Old Aunt Salie Seabolt was stricken speechless last Sunday at the paupers home, so John Butler told us Wednesday and had not eaten a bite or swallowed a drop of water up to Tuesday night, the last he had heard of her. And yet her relatives here have not been notified about it.

Parties wishing to board students will please write the President stating fully the number wanted, number in a room, plan desired, whether "mess" or board and the price per month. This information is necessary in order that the President may aid students in securing rooms.

C. N. Pitts, of Randa has a two-year-old child that has been choked for about four weeks. Two physicians have failed to relieve it, and it looks now as if the little one will soon pass away. It cries and scratches its throat all the time presenting a most pitiful sight. It is supposed to be a watermelon seed it was eating some at the time it got choked. It seems that the only chance to relieve it is to cut the seed out but we learn that its mother won't agree for this to be done, who still hopes that a change may come for the best.

Chickens have ceased to crow until the camp meeting season is over.

Prof. Stewart and wife have returned after an absence of some weeks.

James Tate is now behind the counter at The Commissary waiting on customers.

Prof. J. P. B. Allen left Monday for Hopkinsville, Ky., where he will resume his duties in the college at that place.

Young Phillips, who was captured in an illicit distillery in White county, some weeks ago and let go home until the proper papers could be sent to Atlanta and fixed up, was arrested by Marshal Grizzle last Monday and bound over by Com. Baker.

Those who attended Mossy Creek camp meeting report that they had very good order. The boys did throw a few rocks on the harbor Saturday night but this was meant for no harm—only to keep the tent holders from sleeping too sound.

Sam Tolson, Sr., and Tom Sullins had a misunderstanding in Shoal Creek last week, ending in a fight. It seems that Sullins got the best of the battle, notwithstanding Teals boy was thrown in for a gouger. Teal and Sullins have both been bound over to appear at the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court.

Charlie Dotson while in town this week, informed us that he had been over to Joe Chesters in Fannin county who told him that he killed seven rattlesnakes in his field in one day last week. Such a raid of snakes of this kind over there is very no moonshine liquor comes from that section now. They keep it all for medicine.

A short time after dark Tuesday night a fellow came riding in to town seated in a buggy with his head thrown back like he was looking for some object above. After his mule stopped awhile on the square he made his way down the street towards the Methodist church violating often than the wheels revolved. This explained his strange actions.

Dr. Jones was called on last Sunday to visit Mrs. Eldridge Grizzle of Union county, who he found in a very dangerous condition. She had been a raving maniac for about a week and cannot live long unless a change takes place. Some years ago her sister was nearly in the same condition but he succeeded in curing her and it is hoped that he will be successful in this case.

The fall session of the N. G. A. College does not begin until the 14th of September, being the second Wednesday. This is the latest the fall session has commenced since the foundation of the institution. Why this change is made we cannot say. The commencement was earlier, which gives over three months for recreation and rest. These short terms and long vacations may suit those students that want to frolic around, but the majority that are anxious for a speedy education in order to be able to go into business will turn their course in another direction if they don't mind.

Col. J. W. H. Underwood, candidate for the Senate, passed through our town last Saturday on his way to Rabun Superior Court, after having spent a week or more canvassing Lumpkin county. He understands electioneering pretty well. It is said that he has given every man, woman and boy in the western portion of the county the politicians grip during this trip, and kissed all the babies (not the women) that were presented for him to pass upon their good looks. He would tell the mother that theirs were the prettiest baby in the county and would benevento affix his seal by kissing the little one. But what if one neighbor lady hears of what he has said about the other baby before the election? There will be an uprising among the women and he will be defeated.

Col. Charters is attending Rabun Superior Court this week.

If you fail to get your paper regularly let us know and we will try to find out who is to blame.

Rev. W. A. Jackson, who has been down near Athens teaching for some time, is at home for a month or so.

John Spencer, once a resident of this county but now of Hall, was here last week in company with F. W. Jones from the same county.

Dr. Waddell, a Presbyterian, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday and was listened to with much interest by our citizens of different denominations.

If Capt. Tiltson is not able to return to attend to his military duties in the N. G. A. College by the first of September, his place will be temporarily filled until the Captain can get back.

Gates office is now in charge of Mr. Seabolt, who is in the mercantile business up there. The Seabolts take and pay for the NUGGET and do not depend upon their patrons for the news, and our subscribers at this office will not miss any of their papers hereafter.

The burning of the two school houses in Davis' district some time ago has been a draw back to the little children in that neighborhood. They had no school in the district last year and have had none so far this year. It is a great pity but what those house burners up there could be caught up with.

The old gentleman printer who worked in the Signal office for a few weeks, left out last Saturday in the direction of Atlanta. We never learned his name for he said that he didn't want to know any one here. He had traveled a good deal and stated that he had been to Cuba, and owned an orange grove in Florida and was only up here for his health. Did you ever hear of a printer owning an orange grove before?

Col. Price, who has been out making speeches since the 8th inst. in the interest of the public schools and education generally, delivers his last one today. The weather was very disagreeable a portion of the time but the Colonel kept right on through wind and rain and got there all the same, filling every appointment. It has certainly been a pleasure to this old gentleman to make such a thorough canvass and spending so much time with the hospitable citizens of his county. The Colonel has done passed his three score years and ten and his health will not likely admit of him visiting some of his friends houses any more, but he is a man that will never forget their kind acts toward him on this trip.

We understand that John Forest, who lives near the old Columbia mill, is suffering for the necessities of life. His wife fell and crippled herself some time ago and he is now sick with yellow jaundice. He is a poor man and the only means of support is by his manual labor. Who will help him? The people of Lumpkin county are taxed for this purpose and the money is in the treasury but if you wait until the ordinary's requirements are complied with the man and his family will all die from hunger. There has been much suffering among some of the poor of this county for the past year or two which could have been relieved by Judge Tate at a great extent and no one hurt. A poor old negro man went to him the other day, with crooked form and his head as white as cotton, asking for enough money to buy a peck of meal. The Judge handed him a nickel and told the old negro to make some body else give him enough to get it. The old negro had no power to make any one give him the money and if he failed to strike up with sympathetic persons having the means he had to do without. It is the duty of an ordinary to investigate these poor people claiming the same as looking after a decayed bridge or any other county matter. The money is put in the treasury for his disposal, and not to keep.

Some of the candidates while canvassing the county carry along a man for a body guard, we suppose.

Capt. John Huff was in town Monday who reports that crops are fine over in the Wahoo section and that the farmers are all content and happy.

Candidates are going around now in great numbers with the tax collector who is offering the voters of each district an opportunity to register.

W. R. Armour, of the county of Jackson gave us a pleasant and profitable call Tuesday. He says that they are beginning to pull fodder down his way.

Arveter Sullins, who stabbed Frank Crisson some weeks ago, came in from the wild woods last Monday morning and made the required bond of one hundred and fifty dollars. The following persons signed it: E. M. Sullins, J. F. Sargent, John Barker and S. D. Grindle. Two of these are candidates.

Marshal Bruce is having the roads, streets and bridges put in trim. He has some trouble in getting some of the street hands to work who belong to the "sons of rest." But is speaking of carrying them before the mayor which will divide the trouble with the defendant and be more profitable to the marshal.

Capt. W. J. Worley, who has just returned from Nelson, seems very much surprised at the amount of work that is going on out there in the marble business. He says that the mill alone covers an acre of ground and yard contains thirteen acres, covered with the best and prettiest marble on the face of the globe.

We believe when boys are taken up in town for drinking they should be requested to tell who sold them the wine or liquor or pay a heavy fine—let it be our boy, your boy or the Governors boy. This would soon put a quietus to this part of the program and boys would then not be lying out from home of nights as some of them are now doing. Then the one who furnished them could be punished.

Judge Tate, who returned from Mossy Creek camp meeting Sunday informs us that Mrs. Mattie West, a distant relative of his wife residing in White county has become insane and attempted to drown herself last Saturday. She was discovered by a little child in the creek wading up to a deep place. It screamed, and when she saw her husband coming she fell down into the water, but he was close enough to save her.

Last Tuesday morning it is reported that the neighbors in the other end of town were considerably disturbed caused by a misunderstanding between Mrs. John Whitmire and Miss Salie Whitmire. The preacher not being used to hearing such a racket, ran out to see what it meant. Cases will be made against them when the mayor returns home. If two women were brought into the Superior Court with a preacher as a witness against them there is no telling how much it would cost them, but as it will not reach this court they will likely not be charged up with more than one dollar and trimmings each.

A large crowd attended Soule's Chapel Sunday School celebration last Saturday—nearly every one sitting in the field being on hand, wearing as long faces as if they were all Sunday School teachers. There was no drinking and the best of order prevailed, as is always the case when no liquor is on hand at public gatherings. Each candidate was called on to contribute something for the repaying of the church. Of course none of them could refuse, some almost draining their pockets. It is much better for them to give money to be used on a church than to donate it for liquor, causing some one to have to go to the chain gang.

Lumpkin camp meeting is now in session, but few are in attendance from Dahlonega.

Last Sunday a fellow came riding into town sockless and footless with one of the stirrup leathers swinging across his shoulder. At first we thought that it was one of the Texas Rough Riders who had been to Santiago, but were told that it was one of Dawson county's moonshiners.

Dr. Howard has recovered from his late severe attack and attended Mossy Creek camp meeting. The Doctor attends camp meetings for the purpose of accomplishing good and not just to see or be seen. If every one was like Dr. Howard times would be better, religiously speaking, and jails and court houses would be unknown.

Two lads got so full of toddy Saturday night that they were unable to travel down the Brick Yard Hill road and lay down and slept in the grass until morning. It is a violation of law to sell or give boys wine, liquor or anything intoxicating, but still they get it. Those who furnish it to them may escape any punishment here on earth but when the devil gets hold of them they will catch it.

Rev. W. T. Dowdy has been carrying on a protracted meeting at Nublewell church in this county for several days and is meeting with much success in the accomplishment of great good. Six persons joined the church last Sunday and doubtless many more additions will be made before the close of the revival. They have services twice a day—at 11 o'clock and 4, which is a great draw back to the devils work. If other churches would adopt this plan it would get the old fellow down after awhile and he would have to go somewhere else besides churches to meet with any success at all.

Last Saturday night at a late hour Manuel Garret was discovered out in front of the court house "disputing the measure" with a crowd of boys standing around enjoying the lads condition. The marshal came up and told him that he would have either go home or come with him. The boys started off with him and got near Dr. Howards when the sick boy became enraged, began cursing and wanted to come back. The Marshal granted him the privilege and escorted him to the calaboose door. He soon understood the situation and got as sober as a judge and as easy to handle as a lamb and by permission went straightway home as quiet as if he had been going to a funeral. Manuel was the one that dressed up in womens clothes and gave the Marshal such a rage the other night, but was too drunk to act like a lady this time. His trial comes off today.

Goodman Beck was scared almost to death last Saturday. He is a brother to Bob Beck who partially enlisted in the army recently. Goodman has always been fond of guns and game chickens. Either one is preferred to the pick, shovel or plow handles. If he has not got a gun on his shoulder you may know that there is one close by. Last Saturday he came to town bringing his gun. A town being such a good place for bear, turkey and all kinds of game, he needed it. After hunting about in the streets for some hours and finding that all the game had gone back to the dens probably before he arose that day, he placed his weapon away among some barrels and boxes in the basement of J. F. Moore's store where Adams & Whitmire run a market, until he got ready to depart. That afternoon in taking out his gun the hammer came in contact with something and the load passed through the upper floor, near the oil tank, and some of the shot can be seen now in the ceiling of the store room. Several ran in at the report of the gun and found Goodman standing there hitting his ear with his hand like it was troubling it. After while this motion ceased and the young man picked up the gun and passed out by the college, uninjured but pale enough to stop at the cemetery.
